FIFTEEN DEATHS YESTERDAY FROM HEAT MANY PROSTRATIONS OCCUR IN CITIES

Thunderstorms Bring Slight Relief but in Boston Temperature Rises to Over 100 Degrees and 102 in Streets at Columbus

South Bend, Ind., July 2.—Four persons died from the effects of heat and another was overcome here yesterday. Five died Monday, the result of prostrations. A thunderstorm late yesterday afternoon caused a drop in temperature from 100 to 84 degrees.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 2.—Three deaths and twenty prostrations from the heat were reported yesterday. The number of prostrations, six of which are serious, broke the record for the heated term. The high temperature for the day was 96, at the government bureau and 103 at the street level. Relief came at 4 o'clock when a northeast wind brought thunder showers.

Columbus, Ohio, July 2.—Two deaths and four prostrations, due to the intense heat, were recorded here yesterday. The government thermometer registered 97 degrees, while street thermometers registered 102 degrees. Thunder showers brought slight relief last night.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 2.—Three deaths and numerous prostrations were caused by the excessive heat yesterday. The highest temperature was 91 at 3:45 yesterday afternoon.

Boston, Mass., July 2.—One man died and more than a hundred persons collapsed in Greater Boston yesterday and last night, victims of extreme heat. Officially the maximum temperature was 96, but thermometers in many places indicate over 100 degrees.

New York, July 2.—Two deaths and more than sixty prostrations from the heat occurred here yesterday. The highest temperature recorded by the local weather bureau was 90 at 4 o'clock. This is exceeded only by the 91 mark of June 14 for this year.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 2.—The board of health today ordered the health officers of Cincinnati to seize and operate all ice plants in the city, and to use every available means of distributing to the general public, Mayor Hunt sent a communication to the board declaring that a public emergency existed.

COLLIERIES WILL NOT REQUIRE MR. CROTHERS

Minister's Proposed Arbitration Unnecessary at Cumberland and Ladysmith Mines

Vancouver, July 2.—"If Mr. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, is coming from Ottawa to offer his services as mediator with the object of settling the coal miners' trouble on Vancouver Island, as reported in press dispatches, we shall decline his good offices as we did a similar offer of the Vancouver Board of Trade. There is nothing to arbitrate as the coal miners in our employ walked out of their own accord," said W. L. Coulson, of Victoria, general manager of the Canadian Collieries Ltd., today.

"We have 1,500 men on our payroll at the Cumberland mines, just 300 short of the normal force, and are now maintaining an average output of 2,000 tons of coal daily. At the Ladysmith field, near Ladysmith, there are 250 miners at work. This is about 60 per cent. less than the number usually employed there."

"About 50 per cent. of the English miners who came out seeking employment on Vancouver Island, are now in our employ. They offered to send a deputation to the others engaged in railway construction camps near Lillooet to tell of their good treatment by our company, and that we had not been guilty of misrepresentation. A number of coal miners from the British Isles have written to their friends at Cumberland declaring that they are tired of life on the railway grade."

FIRST PRESSURE TEST RESULT IS TWO DEATHS

Blaine, Wash., July 2.—The first pressure test of a new cannery factory at the Almsworth & Dunn cannery yesterday resulted in an explosion and the death of two cannery employees—Will Witherow and Alexander Dalgetty.

The accident occurred about 11 o'clock yesterday morning when the men after turning steam into the newly-installed retort began working on the doors. The excessive pressure burst open the clamp door. Dalgetty received the full impact of the blow and was thrown 40 feet. He lived three hours.

Witherow was crushed between the door and an adjacent retort and died an hour. Neither regained consciousness. Dalgetty, who was the mechanical foreman of the plant, is survived by a widow and two children, while Witherow, aged 29, was single.

MARQUIS PAYS FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Actress Gets Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars as Settlement

MISS DAISY MARKHAM IS PLAINTIFF IN SUIT

His Father Objected and Young Man Wished to Escape From Titled Position

WROTE SHE WOULD BE HIS BEAUTIFUL DREAM

London, July 2.—Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and all the costs of the suit is the price the Marquis of Northampton has agreed to pay to settle the suit for breach of promise brought against him by the actress, Miss Daisy Markham, whose real name is Miss Violet Moss. The costs will amount to a considerable sum on account of the number of distinguished counsel engaged.

The Marquis, better known as Earl Compton, only recently succeeded to the title at the age of twenty-seven. The plaintiff is well known both in America and the British Isles under her stage name. The settlement was announced when the case was called in the High Court of Justice this morning in a courtroom crowded with fashionable women and actresses, who had come in anticipation of listening to interesting evidence.

Sir Edward Carson, appearing in behalf of Miss Markham, explained that Miss Markham met the marquis in 1907 when he made a promise of marriage to her which was not denied. Subsequently at the desire of his father the marquis broke off the engagement. In doing so he wrote Miss Markham that he wanted her to believe his action had been taken from a sense of duty, genuinely believing it best for both parties. When his father talked to him the marquis wrote, he "faced me with the same thoughts I told you of when I first loved you, which I have ever since been trying to suppress."

The marquis further wrote—"You do not know how these so-called ladies will treat you, and I really could not bear to see you suffering it. Oh, if I could but escape from my position. You will always be my idol, my beautiful dream."

The letter concluded—"Your broken-hearted Blm." This was the Marquis of Northampton's nickname.

This afternoon all sections will unite in the stadium.

ULSTER POLICYS ATTACKED BY LAW

Unionist Says Government Being Forced on United and Determined People

HAD ASKED FOR AN ELECTION AS TEST

Nationalists Demanding That Debt of Honor Shall Be Paid in Full

PEDESTAL OF VIRTUE DANGEROUS POSITION

London, July 2.—Bonar Law, speaking at the annual meeting of the Women's Amalgamated Unionist and Tariff Reform Association, held at the Queen's hall, declared that the Home Rule bill was not a bill to enable Nationalists of Ireland to govern themselves, but a bill to enable the Nationalists of Ireland to force their government upon a great and united and determined people, who detested it.

Anything more unjust, or if it were possible to carry it out, anything more cruel had never, in his opinion, been attempted by any government in any country in the world. I ask you, the opposition leader went on, to look at it also from another point of view. Home Rule, whether it is a good thing, or as bad a thing as we suppose it to be, is a great change, and I am sure I am right in saying that in no country in the world where there is a written constitution could a change like that be made even by a bare majority.

He had asked the prime minister in the House if he really thought he had a right to carry the Home Rule bill without the sanction of the electors, and if he did not, why he did not be easily done. Under the terms of the parliament act that act would work just as well after an election as before it. If, therefore, they had the support of the people of this country they would only have an election; they would lose nothing, they could not even be delayed, and what ground in such circumstances could they be asked, refuse to appeal to that final court which was the master of minister and parliament alike. Why did they not do it? There was only one answer. They were not their own masters.

When they had failed to carry through the so-called "people's budget," they were obliged to incur a debt to the Nationalist members in order to effect their purpose. This debt was not a debt of honor, and their creditors now demanded that it should be paid in full.

Ulster, however, Bonar Law continued, had not been consulted, and Ulster repudiated the bargain, and in her repudiation she would be backed to the last.

Proceeding, Bonar Law pointed out that since the first introduction of the Home Rule bill into the present parliament there had been in Great Britain 31 bye-elections, and that the results of these bye-elections showed a steadily rising tide of opposition to the government. In such circumstances, he contended, to attempt to pass such a bill as the Home Rule bill was not representative government. It was not government at all. It was tyranny just as real, although the power to impose it had been secured by trickery, as if it had been secured by force.

In conclusion, Bonar Law declared that the government had placed themselves on a pedestal of virtue from which they looked down on the struggling mass of humanity beneath, but as George Meredith once said, "The worst of being on a pedestal is that you are liable to fall off." They had fallen off. They were lying in the dust, they would never mount that pedestal again.

POLICE COMMISSION REVOKES CAFE PERMITS

Proprietor Ordered to Dispose of His Dance Hall Interests at Once

San Francisco, July 2.—After a prolonged session last night, the police commission early today revoked the license of Caesar Ronchi's cafe and ordered his partner, John De Maria, to dispose of his interests in several Barbary Coast dance halls at once. Ronchi and De Maria both testified in the police graft trials that bunco men had made their cafes a rendezvous and De Maria once put up $1000 bail for Gallo, charging him $250 for the favor.

The commission also revoked the license of the Jupiter Cafe, owned by Peter Bruce, confessed associate of bunco men. In the latter case the commissioners voted down a motion to restore the license, but ruled that a license for another saloon might be transferred there. A resolution was also passed permitting a second partner of Ronchi to apply for a license.

SENATE LOBBY COMMITTEE AMAZED BY SMILES AND STORY OF DAVID LAMAR TELLS OF LARGE STOCK TRANSACTIONS

Wall Street Operator Tells of His Impersonations and Alleges Union Pacific Books Were Forged in an Item of $82,000,000

DOES NOT KNOW WHO DID IT; MIGHT HAVE BEEN CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OR OFFICE BOY

Washington, D. C., July 2.—David Lamar, Wall street operator and one-time confidant of Russell Sage, James B. Keene and other financiers, amazed the senate lobby committee today by smilingly and frankly testifying that it was he who impersonated Representatives Palmer and Borden in telephone conversations with Lewis Cass Ledyard, Paul D. Cravath, Chairman Robert S. Lovett of the Union Pacific board, and other prominent financiers, telling them that Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer, could do great things for them in Washington.

Lamar also astonished the committee by making a detailed charge that the Union Pacific Railroad's books had been forged in 1901 on an item covering $82,000,000 and that as one result Kuhn-Loeb and the late E. H. Harriman had laid the foundations of a gigantic fortune. When Lamar had finished, Paul D. Cravath, of counsel for the Union Pacific, put in a prepared statement to the committee, alleging that Lamar's charge concerning the $82,000,000, which amount is connected with the Union Pacific surplus, was part of a bear campaign to depress Union Pacific stock, of which the railroad's officials have had knowledge for several days.

Lamar amused, entertained and astounded the committee as he freely testified as to his impersonation of congressmen over the telephone. He did it all, he said, to impress the financiers with the abilities of his friend Edward Lauterbach, but he stoutly denied there was ever any mention that Lauterbach should profit by legal fees.

In 1897, Lamar said, Russell Sage authorized him to compel the Union Pacific to pay the government $58,000,000 in bonds owing it. Lamar, with Senator Forsaker, came to Washington and conferred with President McKinley. "We were charged with being a pair of conscienceless blackmailers," said Lamar, "but that had no effect on us."

When Sage retired from business in 1901, on Sage's recommendation Lamar became associated with James B. Keene. Lamar said he warned Keene when the latter was buying Union Pacific stock that the railroad would ruin him to get revenge for Lamar's previous activity. He detailed how when Keene and his associates had $48,000,000 Union Pacific he took steps to enjoin the voting of certain stock so that E. H. Harriman's stock at a high figure. With Keene's approval he paid $25,000, Lauterbach and Lamar came to Washington, paid Forsaker a fee, and engaged him.

When the injunction was finally decided against Keene, Union Pacific stocks went down and his fortunes. "As a result of the panic of 1907," said Lamar, Harriman, Kuhn-Loeb & Company, the National City Bank and Morgan & Company became bound together as with an iron band.

The Lauterbach incident, he added, "paled into insignificance" compared with a $82,000,000 forgery which he alleged was committed on the Union Pacific books in 1901.

"I do not know who did it," said Lamar, "the chairman of the board or the office boy, but I do know this $82,000,000 was the fulcrum which enabled Harriman and Kuhn, Loeb & Company to gain control of these corporations."

He described a double entry of $82,000,000 representing securities the Union Pacific assumed in taking over the Oregon Short Line and the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company. The items, he said, were carried in a "consolidated balance sheet" of the Union Pacific June 30, 1900, but between that time and June 30, 1901, he alleged someone had erased the $82,000,000 item from the one side of the ledger, leaving it as a credit balance on the other.

"They took all the securities of the Perkins Bull Bonds One Thousand Pounds Towards Lord Mayor's Collection."

FUND OPENED TO BUY THE CRYSTAL PALACE

London, July 2.—The Lord Mayor of London has opened a fund to raise £60,000 to purchase the Crystal Palace for the nation. Perkins Bull, president of the British Canadian Realty Company, sent £1,000.

"This is the anniversary of the birth of Canadian confederation," he writes, "and I felt I could not better celebrate the day than by sending you £1,000 for the fund, Canadians for three-quarters of a century have been following the lead of our grand old man, Lord Strathcona."

Lord Strathcona, it should be explained, promised the final £10,000 to save the palace.

YESTERDAY DIVIDEND DAY.

July 1 was "dividend day," one of the two big ones of the year, the other being January 1.

CANADA'S PLACE ON AMERICAN CONTINENT

Dr. J. A. Macdonald Speaks to Seattle Canadians on Dominion Day

REFERENCE MADE TO TRADE OF COUNTRIES

Plus Britain Means Safety on Pacific and May Mean on Atlantic

CANADA IS THE BOND BETWEEN THE NATIONS

Seattle, July 2.—Several hundred Canadians of Seattle and neighboring cities held a picnic at the Earlington Town and Country Club grounds yesterday in celebration of Dominion Day. A programme of athletic events, including golf and tennis contests, were held. Dr. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, was the orator of the day. He spoke of the friendly relations maintained between the United States and Canada and told of the Globe's dealings transacted between companies and individuals of the two countries.

"Canada's place and function on this American continent are determined by her place in the British Empire," he said. "This young nation holds this half-continent, dividing with the United States the resources of America, and sharing responsibility for American civilization and the duty America owes to the world. Millions of citizens have changed from one to the other, making vital the ties of interest of business which defy all boundaries and barriers. Canada did more business with the United States last year than with Britain and all the rest of the world combined."

Continuing, Dr. Macdonald said: "The best philosophy of international relations on this continent accorded by thoughtful leaders in both countries, was expressed by Secretary of State Knox when he said: 'If there were no Canada it would be in the interest of the United States that one should be created and should be a nation in the British Empire. The power of America to-day is the power of the United States and the power of Britain. Were Canada separated from Britain there would be no plus.'"

"Thoughtful people all over the United States are coming to appreciate what that 'plus Britain' means. It meant much in one critical moment on Manila Bay in 1898. To-day it means safety on the Pacific. And it may mean safety on the Atlantic if ever the authority of the Monroe Doctrine is put to the test."

"But Canada on this continent does more than involve Britain in the preservation of American integrity. As a national unit in the British Empire and as the next neighbor for 4,000 miles of the United States—Canada is the bond and the intermediary between the two sections of the English-speaking race, holding both together in one fraternity for the highest good of each and for the best interests of the world."

GOLD MINING STRIKE IN THE RAND DISTRICT

Dispute Over Working Hours Threatens Tie-Up in South African Mines

Johannesburg, South Africa, July 2.—A strike has started in the Rand district which threatens to tie up the entire gold mining industry of South Africa. The dispute arose from a question about working hours in the new Kleinfontein mines, and from there gradually spread until the situation became as serious that troops were called out to protect property.

The leaders of the unions have called a general strike and the men have promised to respond. The closing also of some coal mines has aggravated the situation and the railway employees threaten to come out. Meanwhile the electricians appear inclined to shut down the power stations, which have therefore been occupied by the military.

BUSH FIRES RAGE IN ONTARIO DISTRICTS

Temiskaming District Severest Sufferer; Settlers at Earleton Lose Crops and Buildings

Cobalt, Ont., July 2.—The district of Temiskaming is abounding with forest fires all along the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario railway from Unosack to Cochrane, and along the transcontinental line east to Bell River and west to Hearst, the bush is a roaring, fiery furnace, and, fanned by a high wind, may engulf towns at any time.

The inhabitants gave up all idea of celebrating Dominion Day, and are fighting for their lives. For two days men have carried water and run to and fro in smoke and sweltering heat. Even around Cobalt, New Line heard and Halleybury wood smoke makes the air acrid, and Dominion Day crowds were covered with ashes. Pillars of smoke tower skyward, and, as the breezes strengthen, great waves of flame redden the heavens.

Yesterday afternoon it was reported that all hope of saving Cochrane had been abandoned, and that the fighters were picking their goods on flat cars. Then came ten minutes of rain, which slackened and finally drove out the blaze.

At Jacksonboro, west of Cochrane, 1,000 logs representing a year's work, have been destroyed.

North Bay, Ont., July 2.—Conditions in the northern district are reported much better today. A number of settlers in the vicinity of Earleton are reported as having lost all from the bush fires, which swept down on their clearings and licked up the result of hard and patient labor in buildings, implements and crops.

FIVE HUNDRED AT CANADIAN DINNER

Duke of Connaught Speaks on Dominion and His Return as Governor-General

London, July 2.—Lord Strathcona presided last night at the Dominion Day dinner which 500 Canadians attended and where H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught was the guest of honor. Hon. Lewis Harkness, colonial secretary; Earl Grey, the Earl of Aberdeen, Col. Seely, minister of war; Hon. A. L. Sifton, premier of Alberta, and the Japanese ambassador, as well as nearly every high commissioner and every leading Canadian at present in London were present.

Proposing a toast to the Dominion, Lord Strathcona alluded to the pride and gratification with which Canadians had received the news of the Duke of Connaught's extension of office as governor-general and his magnificent reception.

Rising to respond to his lordship's remarks concerning the Duchess, His Royal Highness said: "I am very pleased to say that I am making a splendid recovery and look forward to accompanying me back to Canada in the autumn."

"Gentlemen," continued the Duke, "I feel most flattered at having been asked to accept an extension of my term for another year. I think you will be aware that such an offer, made by His Majesty, through his secretary, is a most highly appreciated honor. I have now had the honor of being governor-general for two years and during that time I have learned more and more to take the deepest interest in everything regarding Canada. I am not going to weary you with statistics, such as the chairman has given you, but no one rejoices more than I do that such a statement of Canada's prosperity is possible."

"You must all feel the greatest confidence in the future prosperity of the Dominion," His Royal Highness continued. "During the time I have held office Canada's progress has been most remarkable."

"There may be periods of depression passing over Canada. Those are times which happen to every country, but I am certain this is merely temporary and Canada is on a sound basis and has every reason to look forward to a steady advance in prosperity and population."

"I am afraid, in England," the speaker said, "they are beginning to get a little nervous over the immense number of immigrants going to Canada, but they must remember this, although they may be leaving their shores they are not leaving the British Empire, and should hope to be as great an asset in the Empire in Canada as in the United Kingdom. Canada has not shown any intention of breaking away from the grand old flag waving over us, and I am sure she will always be true to the great position she holds in the British Empire."

The Duke went on to allude to the large number of prominent men present, mentioning the Japanese ambassador, the high commissioner of New Zealand, and Earl Grey, the Earl of Aberdeen, in his own office, and the premier of Alberta.

"When I look around on this occasion," His Royal Highness said, "I feel we are one and all interested in the Empire as we are interested in Canada, and the more we are in sympathy with one another, the more it will strengthen the Empire. (Cheers.)" "I little thought when I was at the Canadian Club dinner two months ago I should still be in England, but my enforced absence from the Dominion will not, I hope lose me the sympathy and affection of Canadians. I look forward on my return to the same support and the same sympathy I have met with during the last two years, and I can assure you that during the next year my interest will not flag, but will be even greater to show how highly I appreciate the manner in which they have always met me on all occasions and how much I value their friendship and their kindness, which I hope will not close when at last I leave the Dominion." (Loud cheers.)

The colonial secretary, Rt. Hon. Mr. Harkness, then read a cablegram received from the acting governor-general of Canada, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick.

"The prime minister desires me to say that his government and the people of Canada have learned with the greatest pleasure that Field Marshal, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, has consented to accept for one year an extension of his term of office as governor-general, which has already been fruitful of the best results in Canada, and will rejoice to hear that Her Royal Highness will be seen with him in the full enjoyment of health." (Cheers.)

Rt. Hon. Mr. Harkness then, referring to Lord Strathcona, said that the laurels, or should he say, maple leaves of an unselfish, industrious life, should be made the crown of his pipe and honored life. (Cheers.)

INJURED BY FALLING INTO DARK CREVASSE

Hood River, Ore., July 2.—Miss Neva Harvey is lying in the local hospital with a broken and mangled leg as the result of falling into a crevasse while ascending Mount Hood with a small party. The accident occurred east of Cooper's spur, several miles from Cloud Cap Inn.

The party consisted of Miss Harvey, her brother, D. A. Harvey, and wife, and another man. It was one of the first parties on the side of the mountain, and as the snow was deeper than usual at this time, the crevasse was hidden and she walked into it.

It was a long time after her fall before her associates were able to rescue her from her perilous position in the dark crevasse.

BRITAIN RECOGNIZES THE BELGIAN CONGO

Sir Edward Grey Declares Both Sides of House Aware of Good Work Done

London, July 2.—In the House of Commons Sir Edward Grey made an important statement in regard to the British recognition of Belgian rule in the Congo. As far as the old regime in the Congo was concerned, Sir Edward Grey said, he had always made it clear that we did not hold the Belgian parliament or people responsible for it; it was the work of irresponsible rule.

He had said often that Belgium had a prior right to take over the Congo and that attitude was now amply justified, for Belgium had taken over the Congo and had completely changed the system in it. He was exceedingly glad that the good work done by Belgium had received recognition on both sides of the House. It was no easy task which Belgium had carried out, but her government, parliament and sovereign had all worked together with the best intentions and great energy to repair the wrong done and bring the Congo territory up to the standard of a European colony.

Their success was a subject for congratulation, especially as there was no more disagreeable task than that of making complaints to a nation with whom we wished to be on friendly terms.

There had been a great deal of impatience all round. In Belgium there had been impatience because his majesty's government had not recognized the annexation of the Congo colony sooner, and he had always replied that it was eminently desirable that when the recognition did take place it should be the act not merely of the British government, but of that government backed by the good will of the British parliament and people.

Now that the time of recognition had come, it had, he rejoiced to say, the good will of both sides of this House, frankly and fully recognizing that the state of the Congo affairs, lately so much deplored, had entirely passed away. He felt that in announcing to the House that the government were prepared to recognize the Congo as a Belgian colony, they were doing what was morally right as well as politically expedient.

HORNE-PAYNE MAKES REPLY TO CRITICISM

Financier Says His Remarks Regarding Canadian Municipal Borrowing Misunderstood

London, July 2.—R. M. Horne-Payne, whose criticisms of Canadian borrowing around so many adverse comments, made yesterday the following statement to the Canadian Associated Press:

"I can only say my remarks have been entirely misunderstood and misrepresented in Canada. I did not state or intend to suggest that security for Canadian city bonds was not good, or that Canadian cities were not able to pay their interests, but referred to the dangerous financial situation created by spending money more rapidly than it can be raised, and to the great injury inflicted on British investors and Canadian municipalities alike by the consequent continuous depreciation in prices."

"My life has been devoted to raising money for the development of Canada, and every interest I have is bound up with her prosperity. It would be a contradiction of every act and word of mine for the past 23 years if I said anything against her future or against the future prosperity of her cities, which I regard as absolutely unquestionable. I was speaking as a financial man, and referring exclusively to monetary conditions, and speaking entirely on my own responsibility without consultation with anyone."

TOOTHACHE INDIRECTLY CAUSED LOSS BY FIRE

Portland Man Overcome by Smoke is Saved From Death by Patrolman

Portland, Ore., July 2.—An aching tooth indirectly caused the destruction of the home of F. J. Finger by fire yesterday, and the spreading flames threatened an adjoining residence for a time.

Finger was overcome by smoke, and the timely rescue by Patrolman E. Adams, who fought his way through the flames and carried Finger out of the burning house at the risk of his own life prevented a certain fatality.

Finger was suffering from a turbulent molar and he kept an oil stove burning in the kitchen so that he could apply hot towels to his throbbing jaw at intervals. Shortly before midnight he changed bandages, leaving a towel too close to the stove. It blazed up, the flames spreading rapidly.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

Edmonton, Alta., July 2.—Mounted police and prison guards are to-day scouring the country for four convicts who made their escape from the penitentiary between 2:30 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The prisoners, McKil, Clark, Mackay and Vernon, made their escape by means of a special key with which they secured access to the corridor, after which they filed the bars on a window and got into the prison yard. Two of them then scaled the fence, and the other two walked out of the gates. Since then they have not been seen.

FORTY THOUSAND AT GETTYSBURG REUNION

Veterans of Civil War Encamped on Old Battlefield Where Meade Met Lee

Gettysburg, Pa., July 2.—Forty thousand old veterans of the war between the North and South are encamped on the field here, the scene of the greatest battle of the civil war. The old men are survivors of the armies that opposed each other 50 years ago in that struggle, but they meet as friends and comrades, now, not as foes, of the 75th anniversary of that mighty engagement. They have lived long enough to forget past bitterness, and to remember only the courage and the soldierly qualities that made Gettysburg one of the greatest battles of the world's history.

The reunion will last throughout next Friday. To-day is known as Military Day, Thursday as Civic Day and Friday as National Day. The outskirts of the great battlefield look like a tented village. Under the regulations being enforced, the State of Pennsylvania and the government are furnishing entertainment to veterans only, and no old soldier is permitted to quarter any member of his family in the camps.

Immediately adjoining the camp is a great tent for reunions, and herein will occur all the excursions, excepting the military parade and fireworks. The reunion has drawn hundreds of thousands of people from every state in the Union to Gettysburg, and among the visitors is to be President Wilson and all of the members of his cabinet.

The President and Mrs. Wilson and Governor Tener and Mrs. Tener will be the guests of President and Mrs. William Anthony Granville, of the Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg. Several of the buildings of this institution were used as hospitals during the great battle. Leases of land covering 240 acres have been closed.

In tents on the campus are housed the governors of the various states with their staffs.

One of the most interesting of the veterans present is the battlefield is Colonel Charles Burrows, of New Jersey, who is completely blind.

The tented villages in which the veterans of the armies of Lee and Meade are living are not on the government reservation, but on contiguous tracts of private land rented for the period of the reunion. These camps comprise an area of 135 acres, on which, besides the tents that house the veterans, there are 37 field hospitals, and infirmaries, 30 bakery tents and numerous kitchen and storage tents. The camps alone represent a monetary outlay, exclusive of ground rental, of about $253,425.

The equipment of the sleeping tents for veterans includes 41,640 cots, 40,000 blankets, 10,000 wash basins, 11,350 candle-burning lanterns, 60,000 wax candles, 5,000 galvanized iron drinking water buckets. The total weight of this equipment is 1,242,507 pounds, and the total value about $228,000. The hauling of the tentage and equipment, together with the baggage of the veterans, to the camp will entail an additional expenditure of about $16,000.

The kitchen outfits weigh 125,644 pounds, and the weight of the army rations that the old veterans of Gettysburg are expected to consume about 1,000,000 pounds. More than 40,000 mess kits are necessary, and this means 40,000 enameled plates and an equal number of knives, forks, tablespoons, tea-spoons and cups.

EIGHTY SCHOOL-BOYS ARE SENT TO PRISON

Took Part in Demonstration Against Huerta Military Order in Mexico.

Mexico City, Mex., July 2.—The plan to hold a convention at which the rebels would be represented as well as all political parties has been abandoned on account of official antagonism and the general conviction that it would be a failure. Eighty school-boys were sent to jail last night for having taken part in a demonstration against the order for the militarization of government schools.

President Huerta had ordered that school-boys be drilled for the purpose of making them ready to take their places as soldiers if necessary. The demonstration had got no further than the noisy stage when the police closed on them and arrested those more actively engaged.

The report that General Diaz is planning to leave for Europe and that the rebels by letters have threatened to cut communication with Vera Cruz if he attempts to leave the capital, is without foundation in fact.

INFLUENCE OF HOMES.

London, July 2.—At a sitting of the conference of the Women's Liberal Association, under the presidency of Mrs. Soames, the president said that the health, happiness and the moral character of a people were all largely influenced by their homes. The raising of laborers' wages might, she thought, help to solve the housing problem in the rural districts.

FOUND DEAD UNDER TRUCKS ON RAILWAY

Body of Unknown Man Discovered at Vancouver in Mangled Condition.

Vancouver, June 2.—With the head and shoulders frightfully crushed and mangled, the head and body of an unidentified man was found lying across the C. P. R. freight track in the Vancouver yards near the depot shortly before midnight. Whether or not the man had merely fallen asleep beneath the cars, and through unexpected shunting had met his death, or had been attacked and robbed by tramps, is a question which the police are considering, owing to the fact that although his clothes are of good material and cut, and not those of a laborer or regular panhandler, absolutely nothing of value or anything that would serve to identify him was found in his possession.

It is also possible that the case is one of suicide. Making their regular round of the switches three yardmen noticed what they thought to be a man asleep near the rails. Commenting upon his dangerous position, they bent over to wake him up, and found him to be quite dead.

COMES TO INQUIRE IN MINERS' STRIKE

Ottawa, July 2.—Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labor, left yesterday for Vancouver Island to make a personal investigation of the labor difficulties in the mines on the island. He will hold a series of conferences between the men and the companies.

BOSS VERSUS BOSS.

The intervention of the Attorney-General in the injunction proceedings in connection with the Rogers-Stevens raid on the Spanish Bank at English Bay furnishes scope for some interesting speculation. The Times the other day published the particulars of the transaction out of which the present litigation arose, a transaction which need not surprise those conversant with the methods of Hon. Bob Rogers, whose only purpose of getting control of the contracts department of the federal government was to engage in sinister enterprises of the kind. The Spanish Bank had been used by Vancouver contracting firms for years as a free source of supply for sand and gravel. Through the assistance of H. M. Stevens, member for Vancouver, the Silica Sand and Gravel Company obtained from Mr. Rogers a lease of the bank for five years on payment to the government of five cents per cubic yard, and then imposed a charge of twenty cents per yard upon the firms which for eighteen and twenty years had been obtaining the sand and gravel from the bank for nothing. The supply firms, however, disregarded the arrangement. They refused to stand and deliver, and continued to dredge on the Spanish Bank. The Silica Sand and Gravel Company have entered injunction proceedings against them, and these are now pending. Originally the firm of Bowser, Reid & Wallbridge acted for the plaintiffs, but a few days ago they withdrew from the case, their withdrawal being followed by the announcement that the Attorney-General had joined with the defendants in attacking the legality of the grant on behalf of the province, on the ground that it is a violation of provincial rights.

As the province apparently has never concerned itself about the jurisdiction of the Spanish Bank during the twenty years it has been a free source of supply for sand and gravel, it is evident that some unusual motive is stirring its chief law lord in the present instance. Mr. Bowser's excuse for interference is scarcely credible. On the contrary, we are inclined to think that the authorities across James Bay are annoyed because they so long blindly ignored the machine political possibilities of the situation. It must be staggering to think that this magnificent field was neglected all these years, and the galling part of the whole business is that Bob Rogers, three thousand miles away, and a mere poverino like H. M. Stevens, late veterinary surgeon with Uncle Sam's army in the Philippines, saw it first. And all this time party friends were scurrying far and wide throughout the province looking for snags, with this Eldorado lying at their very feet. No wonder the Attorney-General has drawn his falchion and will attack the Honorable Bob's right to make the grant to the friends of Mr. Stevens.

As for Mr. Stevens, who cares whether his feelings are injured? Not the Attorney-General. Did not the humiliated member for Vancouver insist upon putting himself up for nomination in the election of 1911 against the wishes of the provincial Junta? Did he not, like Ajax, defy the lightning when he set at defiance the stern demand of the Attorney-General to come out of the game? He obtained the nomination; but the Attorney-General did not forget. He is going to bury Stevens politically for all time in the Spanish Bank, and incidentally take charge of the bank himself on behalf of the province. As a side issue the fight between the Boss of Ottawa and the Boss of British Columbia over a spoils contract will be highly interesting.

BLAMES THE IDLE RICH.

An American judge lays the blame for the high cost of living on the idle rich. This most righteous judge must forgive us for failing to agree with him entirely. We can hardly see how he can justify his conclusion in the face of the evidence. The idle rich are not heavy beef eaters, according to published reports of their gastronomic preferences. They prefer richer diet, as a general rule. And yet the price of beef is high. A few days ago the retail price of this article of general consumption, outside the ranks of the idle rich, went up several cents in Chicago, although at the same time the price of cattle "on the hoof" went down farther than retail prices advanced. Several inquisitive individuals have ever since been trying to find out what was at the bottom of this phenomenon, and needless to say they have not succeeded. Of course, if certain idle rich persons controlled the beef market and owed their idle richness to that fact, the judge would be measurably right in his judgment. But what puzzles us is the fact that the high cost of living is apparently about as high in Victoria and in British Columbia as anywhere, and we have no great number of idle rich here. Everybody, nearly, is very busy; or at least nearly everybody is rushing about in such a headlong way as to successfully convey the impression that he is very, very busy indeed. We have given perhaps a much consideration to this subject as the learned jurist whose judgment is the basis of these few remarks, and the only conclusion we can reach is that "it is a condition, not a theory, that confronts us."

SOLDIERS AND MOUSTACHES.

"Upper lips must not be shaved." This is the substance of a recent order from headquarters at Ottawa to the soldiers in training at the Petawawa and Niagara camps. Obviously the purpose of the order is to encourage moustache production among the Ontario soldiery, a serious falling off in the crop having been noticeable in late years. But if the order is only effective during the period of training, the result will not be satisfactory. Moustaches are not like mushrooms that grow in the night, nor in many cases are they like flowers that bloom in the spring. They require as much time and care for proper development as an orchard. Take, for instance, the free flowing Kentucky effect. This is only obtained after many false starts and years of unremitting attention. Of course, the order does not insist upon the production of a moustache in any stated time. It simply places an embargo on shaving the upper lip, subtly leaving the rest to Providence. Those who issued the instructions know that moustaches will not grow in response to even a command from headquarters.

Speaking from the standpoint of the layman, we are inclined to the opinion that the department is making a mistake if it does not render the order permanently effective. The result of a temporary embargo on shaving the upper lip will be to produce an effect utterly devoid of symmetry and uniformity. It imposes a grievous handicap on the callow youth upon whose lip a few weeks' neglect with the razor will merely imprint a smudge, and gives an overwhelming advantage to the veterans who always have aggressive, bristling moustaches in reserve.

We think we see in this order the thin edge of the wedge. It is another aspect of Imperialism. Some day there will come from headquarters a general order making moustaches compulsory in the service. This will involve a new division and alignment of our soldiery. Clearly it would be absurd to have in one company a heterogeneous and motley collection of moustaches with no well-designed color scheme. It would be ridiculous to have the melancholy droop and the Kaiser uplift side by side. Nothing could be more damaging to the esprit de corps of a battalion than the belligerent Bismarck model promiscuously distributed among the Piccadilly and Fifth Avenue cuts, or a potpourri of blondes, brunettes and neuters. Above all things let us have order and uniformity. Let us not be known as an unsanctified race ready to sacrifice grace and symmetry to the production of a bumper crop. Besides, the greatest soldiers in history were no moustaches. Napoleon, Alexander, Caesar, Hannibal, Frederick the Great and Marlborough had none, and although all met with reverses there is no evidence to show that these were due to the fact that they shaved their upper lips. Even Col. Hughes and Col. Currie are moustacheless.

The best way to promote shipbuilding here is for the federal government to show that it has some conscience in the energy and ability of the Canadian people and proceed with the organization of a Canadian navy. Australia, following determinedly the policy agreed upon by herself, Canada and the Admiralty in 1909, already has an extensive shipbuilding industry with orders to fill running to millions of dollars. British firms will establish lish branches, just as they established them in Spain and Austria, if our government will guarantee them continuity of work. This continuity of work could be provided in the shape of orders for cruisers and other ships of war. It would be the most effective support that could be given to the industry. It is working out profitably in Australia. Why not in Canada?

The federal government is noted for the way in which it dodges responsibility for legislation by appointing commissions. How would it do to appoint a commission to inquire into the conditions under which Chinese are brought to this country? Is it true that employment agencies bring them here under conditions little better than servile and farm them out to large corporations? Are they blocking the way to employment to men of Anglo-Saxon stock? What has become of those ardent champions of Asiatic exclusion, these claxon-voiced friends of the white workmen of other days? Speak up, Sir Richard.

Aldermen who criticize the finance committee of the council because it finds itself unable to provide for new work are talking nonsense. The pressing problem this city has to face is to pay what it owes so that it may some day again approach the money market with prospects of success. Also, it is too early to begin talking for the next election.

The torrid east is sweltering in one of the several "heat waves" that annually falls upon that delectable portion of the continent. It is a good thing for that part of the country that there is always an assurance of a bountiful ice harvest when a too ardent sun pays his annual visit to the other side of the equator.

Of one thing we are quite sure: that if Harry Price had been in control of the political machine in Vancouver Spanish Bank, instead of giving its sand free to builders for many years, would have been paying suitable tribute into the party coffers—and elsewhere.

There can be no doubt that for once the Colonist is right. The best and most enjoyable holiday is the holiday in which the individual citizen is permitted to take his enjoyment where he can find it. Victoria has outgrown, or has at least outlived, the set programme of organized enjoyment.

The great question is: were those Highlanders technically dead before they took the cadets prisoners? It is humiliating to be captured by a man whom, under all the rules of mimic warfare, you have rendered as lifeless as Julius Caesar.

PICNICKERS MAKE MERRY

New Presbyterian Sunday School Pupils Enjoy Outing Near Swan Lake.

A merry party of picnickers assembled in one of the pretty groves on the road between Cloverdale and Swan Lake yesterday afternoon, when the Sunday School pupils of the new Presbyterian Sunday School of Harriet Road Mission congregation, together with their teachers and parents, held their first organized outing of the kind.

The surroundings were happily chosen, and sports and games were indulged in by the youngsters. Luncheon was provided from well-filled baskets, after which the several events of the day were carried through according to pre-arranged programme, and both the grown-ups and the little folks indulged in swinging, foot racing, ball games, etc. Among the prize winners to whom awards were made later in the day were Masters George Mann, John West, Percy McKenzie, Thomas Swallow, Leonard West, James Cambridge, John McKenzie, Nettie West, Margaret McKenzie, Mollie Buchanan, William Swallow, George Cambridge and David West. The afternoon concluded by the boys and girls giving three hearty cheers and a cheer for each of the ladies and teachers who had enabled them to have such an ideal Dominion Day picnic.

PUPILS GIVE RECITAL.

Students of Miss Ada Saunders, Assisted by Miss Green, and Enjoyable Entertainment at V. W. C. A.

A very enjoyable recital was given on Monday afternoon in the reception rooms of the new V. W. C. A. quarters, corner of Douglas and Courtney streets, when the pupils of Miss Ada Saunders, assisted by Miss Green, a pupil of Miss Eva Hart, gave a delightful programme of songs and instrumental selections.

The occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present, the character of the instrumental selections showing thoroughness of training, and reflecting great credit on Miss Saunders, while Miss Green's charming singing was greatly appreciated. The others who took part were Miss Cordelia Corfield, Miss Cecily Foster, Miss Winifred Wolfenden, Miss Mohra Terry, Miss Grace Burrell, and Miss Kathleen Bea. The theory prizes were also presented during the afternoon, and the remainder of the time was passed in partaking of tea.

June Record.—The cases dealt with by the society for the prevention of Cruelty to Animals during June were as follows: Horses, 12; cattle, 1; dogs, 3; fowl, 1; condemned horses, 1; cases in court, 1.

Court of Revision.—The city council on Monday night appointed Mayor Morley and Aldermen Dilworth, McClelland, Porter and Weston as the court of revision on local improvement assessments.

Bank Clearings.—The bank clearings for the month of June were $15,180,940, against $14,775,923 in the corresponding month of 1912, and the total for the six months which have elapsed of this year is thus $92,302,782 against $82,030,003 in the corresponding period of 1912.

Presbyterian Church Site.—A site has been bought by the Victoria Presbyterian Church Extension committee for a new church to be built at the corner of Harriet road and Lurline street. A large settlement has grown up in this neighborhood during the last two years, composed of people from Eastern Canada, England, Ireland and Scotland, principally, and the work of building will be commenced as soon as possible.

Claim For Compensation.—Further information has come regarding the claim of Mrs. Mary Nasson against the city and the Canadian Mineral Rubber Company for damages for an accident. It appears that Mrs. Nasson met with an accident when work was in progress at the corner of Hillside avenue and Douglas street by the paving company. She claims that the street was not properly protected at the time. The city solicitor advised on Monday night that the council should ask to be indemnified against any responsibility for compensation.

NO LIQUOR AT RECEPTION

Temperance Drinks Only Will Be Provided at Entertainments When New Zealand is Here.

An influential deputation from the various temperance organizations waited on the city council on Monday to urge the omitting of liquors when H. M. S. New Zealand comes here and the use of temperance drinks.

Rev. T. W. Gladstone spoke on behalf of the deputation which represented the Adult Bible Federation, Christian Endeavor Societies, Social Service Commission, Good Templars, Royal Templars of Temperance, Women's Christian Association, Young Men's Christian Association and Young Women's Christian Association.

After hearing him the council unanimously adopted a resolution not to provide liquor during the visit at any entertainment over which they had control.

Mr. Gladstone referred to the growth of the temperance sentiment in the world, and particularly in the Dominion from which the visitors were coming. He alluded to the deplorable condition which arose from the entertainments for the Rainbow when a man lost his life "as a terrible calamity," the whole being a reproach to the city. They should not allow such a thing to occur again.

Aldermen McClelland, Dilworth, Weston and McNeill supported the suggestion contained in the application of the deputation and the request was then unanimously agreed to, Alderman Porter asking that the subject be left to the committee which would have the subject of the entertainment in hand.

NEW SYSTEM ON CARS

Passengers Paid To-day on Entering Fowl Bay, Oak Bay, Willows and Uplands Cars.

The Pay-as-You-Enter system on the Fowl Bay, Oak Bay, Willows and Uplands street car lines was successfully initiated to-day and from all reports is meeting with the greatest of satisfaction from all parties concerned.

The company points out that there are two chief benefits which have made the plan a success in other cities and the officials expect it will be a success here because of them.

In the first place the passenger is given a fairer chance as regards safety in leaving or boarding the car, in that the conductor never leaves his position on the rear platform and is able to see all persons boarding the car. The dangers of the present system on the point when a car may be started before all persons are aboard. On the other hand payment of fare is done as soon as one begins to ride and no further annoyance is necessary during the trip.

From the standpoint of the car company, it is shown that better time in the handling of passengers can undoubtedly be made. To-day's success of the system will likely result in the adopting of it all over the city as soon as the cars are available.

FINEST SHIP OF HER TYPE TO COME HERE

Colusa Berths This Morning and is Admired; Reception to Local Merchants

There is every prospect of the new passenger and freight service between San Francisco and Victoria, which is being inaugurated by W. R. Grace & Co., proving a successful business. Early this morning the new liner Colusa, Capt. Munster, came into port and every cabin in her saloon was filled. All told she had 20 travellers, six of whom disembarked at Victoria, the remainder being booked for Vancouver, for which port the steamship will depart early this evening.

The Colusa, which is a new ship and on her maiden voyage, although not a handsome ship, is one of the finest combination passenger and freight ships to come to Victoria. She is a four-master and has one big stack, which is situated amidships and is painted green with a black top, the distinguishing mark of the Grace line. The foremast of the Colusa is stepped almost in the eyes of her, and the after mast is right at the break of the poop. The main and mizen masts, the booms from which work the two largest hatches, are located at either end of the passenger accommodation. The accommodation for first class passengers is fine, there being plenty of deck space and all cabins are large and airy. Boats of the type of the Colusa will no doubt prove very popular in the coastwise trade.

Reception Aboard To-day. This afternoon at 1:30 o'clock the local merchants were entertained on board by the owners of the ship. There was a large attendance at the affair and the large dining saloon was filled. Several speeches were delivered by the merchants, who thanked Messrs. Grace & Co. for the establishment of the service, and they promised to lend whatever support they could to the line.

Owing to the fact that the oil-burners had not been properly adjusted on the Colusa while at San Francisco trouble developed during the trip up the coast and instead of being 50 hours on the run she was three days. The weather was exceptionally fine and the passengers did not object to being at sea a day longer than they expected. On the voyage to San Francisco from the Clyde the Colusa was also favored with fine weather. She ran into a heavy gale in the Strait of Juan de Fuca and considerably in a heavy swell. The Colusa flies from her masthead the Royal Naval Reserve flag because her master, Capt. E. J. Munster, is on the list of reserve men. Nearly every shipping man on the Pacific Coast knows this skipper. He has been here before and always enjoys a visit to Victoria, with which place he has many historic associations.

One Via Panama. The Colusa is the type of vessel which the Grace line intend to operate between New York and this coast via the Panama Canal. They have several of these magnificent ships building in Old Country shipyards and they will be coming around the Horn in a very short time. Grace & Co. are after the Mexican freight and each of their ships call at Salina Cruz to pick up Tehuantepec cargo. The passengers who disembarked from the Colusa at this port were: Mrs. D. O. Hunt, Mrs. A. M. Wood, Mrs. M. A. Rueger and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson and child. The steamship is discharging 400 tons of cargo here.

TEES INQUIRY HELD. Capt. Eddie, examiner of masters and mates, held a preliminary inquiry into the stranding of the C. P. R. steamer Tees at Franklin creek, Alberni canal, on Monday last. Capt. Gilliam and several of the officers and crew gave evidence.

HARRISON LINER IS IN FROM OLD LAND

Comedian Berths and is Discharging Much Cargo Here; Deep Sea Ships' Notes

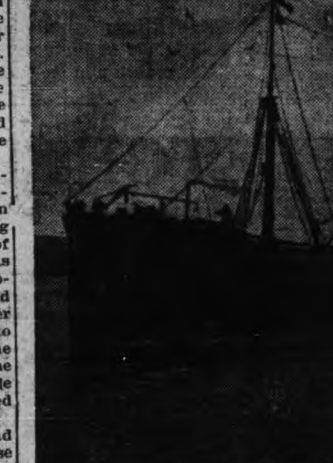

After a rather slow trip up the coast from San Francisco the Harrison liner, Comedian, Capt. Nathan, tied up at the outer docks this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The last leg of the long voyage to Victoria from European ports was made with fine weather prevailing. As soon as the Comedian was berthed several gangs of stevedores set to work discharging about 500 tons of Old Country cargo from the vessel and it is expected that she will be able to proceed to Vancouver some time tomorrow. Capt. Nathan reports that nothing out of the ordinary occurred during the trip.

Advices have been received by R. P. Rithet & Co., agents for the Harrison line, stating that the steamship Comedian, which is following the Comedian to port via the Strait of Magellan, cleared from Liverpool on May 17. She is due here in a month's time and is bringing 500 tons to Victoria.

No Word From Tallybush. As yet the wireless operator on board the Holt liner Tallybush, Capt. Allen, has been unable to get his machine in communication with the coast stations. Shipping men expect to see the new liner along about Friday. She should report by wireless some time tomorrow.

Yesterday afternoon the Nippon

LINER HAS PECULIAR TRIP FROM ORIENT

TAMBA MARU

Yusen Kaisha liner Shidzuoka Maru, Capt. Iritawa, cleared from Victoria for the Orient, laden to her capacity with general freight loaded on the Sound. She had much wheat and flour in her holds. The passenger list was large, all the saloon accommodation being filled.

SLOWED DOWN BUT CURRENT RUSHED STEAMSHIP ALONG

Boston, Mass., July 2.—The Gulf Stream is evidently speeding up. Capt. Joseph Gossie, of the Costa Rica, which has ahead of time, declares that the voyage was due to the unusually swift current in the Gulf Stream. He said the steamer was carried along so rapidly that the engines were slowed down to half speed. Even after that the vessel logged off the miles at such a fast rate that they arrived twenty-four hours ahead of time.

The Megantic reached Liverpool yesterday from Montreal. The Laurentic arrived at Quebec yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from Liverpool, and is due at Montreal this afternoon.

FEW FISH ARE TAKEN AT COAST CANNERIES

Venture Brings Word That Salmon Fishing South of Bella Coola is Poor

None of the canneries south of Bella Coola are meeting with great success in their fishing operations as yet, according to word brought south by the Union steamer Venture, Capt. Parks, which came into port yesterday. The fishermen have taken very few springs or sockeyes, and there are indications of this year's catch being behind that of last season. At River's Inlet and Smith's Inlet few fish have wandered into the meshes of the fishermen's nets.

The Japanese, Indians and white fishermen have been out after the salmon since June 20. The packs have been getting smaller each year for some time past, and the fishermen were hoping that this season would be a good one. It is early yet, however, and the fish may start to run better about the middle of the month.

Carrying Many People. The Venture is carrying large crowds of people north, and for several trips she has been unable to accommodate all the passengers who have applied for berths. Many people are making their way into the different towns this side of Bella Coola.

The sailing date of the Venture from here for the north has been changed from Tuesday to Wednesday. She will make her first trip out of this port on

FOR SIX DAYS IN VERY DENSE MIST

Tamba Maru Reaches Port From Orient After Unique Trans-Pacific Trip

PASSENGERS HAVE FINE TIME CROSSING PACIFIC

For six days the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Tamba Maru, Capt. Teranaka, which berthed here this morning from the Orient, steamed through one of the thickest fogs that has ever settled down over the Pacific. The navigating officers on the Tamba were unable to take very few sights during the time. On the second day after leaving Yokohama the Nippon steamship fell in with the mists, and it was not until she crossed the 180th meridian, six days later, that the atmosphere cleared. Capt. Teranaka says that the fog was one of the worst he has ever seen on the Pacific.

After getting clear of the fog bank the Tamba encountered fair weather conditions. The sea throughout the voyage was seldom disturbed by even a slight ripple, and Capt. Teranaka this morning boasted of the fact that not a single one of the 300 souls on board the ship was seasick during the long run of 14 days. When nearing the coast of Vancouver Island the weather became extremely warm.

DECK SPORTS ON SUNDAY; Number of Missionaries Arrive From China

In order that time might not pass heavily on the hands of the passengers the master of the Tamba, who is one of the most courteous and genial Japanese skippers coming to this port, arranged a fine list of sports which were run off last Sunday. Races for ladies as well as gentlemen took part in the programme, together with the crew, were permitted to compete in the field day. Capt. Teranaka started the sports at 1 o'clock, and they lasted for four hours. The big event of the day, the marathon, the course of which was five times around the ship, was won by one of the 10 o'clock hands, a reliable old needle and thread, potato, obstacle, boot and shoe, three-legged and one-legged races were among those on the programme. The blucut, tansan and cigarette race was in which the competitors, after getting away with a good old hand, took a glass of beer, a glass of tansan, race back, smoke a cigarette and then take another turn at running.

Many Saloon Passengers. The Tamba brought in 30 saloon passengers, one of the largest lists to arrive for the past year. There was also a good crowd in second-class, and in steerage there were about 225 Chinese and Japanese. Among the saloon travellers were a number of missionaries who are returning from the Orient, and Miss E. C. Johnson, who has spent over 14 years of her life teaching the Chinese around Shantung, is on her way to Toronto, accompanied by Miss F. L. Collins. Miss Johnson saw much fighting in the recent revolution in the Celestial republic, and she was also in the Boer rebellion. During the last disturbance in the Flowery Kingdom Miss Johnson spent four hours in an old train coach while the bullets of the two parties were flying about very thickly and piercing the sides of the coach at frequent intervals.

PILOT LEFT SHIP AND MEN IN FINEST TRIM

After piloting the Stefansen exploring ship Karluk from Victoria to Wrangell, Alaska, Capt. Joseph Gossie, of the Nanaimo, returned to Victoria yesterday. He has little additional to tell of that which came over the wire from the North.

After getting away from Victoria trouble was experienced with the furnace of the boiler. The grating bars were found to be too close together, and until Duncan Bay was reached, where she stopped to wait for the tide in Seymour Narrows, the Karluk only averaged three knots an hour. At Duncan Bay the gratings were opened and from then on the exploring ship made a little better than six knots.

When the Karluk put into Wrangell Capt. Bartlett, master of the Karluk, after consulting the charts, found that by making for open water from that point instead of from Juneau he could save two days in getting to Nome. The Karluk was in good trim for battling with heavy weather when Capt. Gossie left her. He also left her officers and crew in very fine health.

RUPERT IN DRYDOCK

Early this morning the G. T. P. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. D. McKenzie, arrived in port from Granby Bay and Prince Rupert, and after all her passengers had disembarked she proceeded around to Esquimalt and was floated into drydock. She is to have one of her propellers attended to. Several new blades are to be fitted. One of the wheels came in contact with a log a short time ago and the blades were bent and chipped.

WEEK'S 'FRISCO BOATS

Bound for San Francisco the Pacific Coast steamship City of Poughkeepsie, Capt. Harris, left the outer docks this morning at 8 o'clock. She took out one of the largest lists of passengers that has gone south this spring. Forty-one passengers joined the vessel here. The City of Poughkeepsie is making a sailing in the 'Frisco' Golden State service, was reported leaving the Golden State yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, an hour and a quarter late. She only has 147 tons of cargo for this port, but has a good passenger list.

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

CHANGED HANDS YESTERDAY

Joe Bayley Loses Decision to Frenchie Vaise at End of Fifteen Rounds; Wants Another Bout

(By a Staff Reporter.)

Vancouver, July 2.—Under-estimating the fighting abilities of Frenchie Vaise, the Ronton lightweight, Joe Bayley, the Canadian champion, lost his crown to a practically unknown boy at the Brighthouse Arena yesterday afternoon. Referee Jimmie Hewitt giving the decision to Vaise at the end of the fifteenth round. The decision might have been called a draw, but Vaise's work in the closing rounds of the fight, together with the fact that he did not bear a mark of the contest, influenced Referee Hewitt to give him the decision. Bayley's defeat came as a crushing blow to his many supporters, and Vaise's supporters cleaned up a lot of money. The new champion immediately agreed to give Bayley a return bout for the title, and the pair will meet the end of this month.

Bayley in Poor Shape.

It is hard to realize that Vaise earned a win over the champion, but after the first four rounds, which were greatly in Bayley's favor, Vaise held his own. He reached Bayley's nose with a right cross in the sixth round that broke a blood vessel, and thereafter kept pecking away at the damaged member. Bayley losing a lot of blood, which may have weakened him considerably. The fight may be summed up in a few words. Bayley lacked the aggressiveness that marked his former bouts, his judgment of distance was poor, and he showed an utter lack of condition for such a contest. On the other hand Vaise was boxing at his best and was getting better as the bout wore on. Bayley rallied gamely in the final rounds, and had a shade at the end, but Vaise's work in the eighth, ninth and tenth rounds gave him the championship.

First Defeat of Career.

It was the first time in his fighting career that Bayley had ever lost a decision, and perhaps the defeat will come as a blessing in disguise. It will prove to the Victoria boy that he is not invincible, and more than that, will prove that condition is a big factor in all boxing contests. Manager Condon was greatly incensed over the decision, and stated after the bout that Bayley should not have been given worse than a draw. He said that he would seek another bout with Vaise, and was confident that the Victoria boy would regain his laurels. The crowd at the ring was much smaller than expected, the counter attractions marred the attendance, while the threatening weather also kept the gate from breaking any records. It was a bad day all round for the champion. His hands were greatly bruised in the encounter with Vaise. Condon, however, states that Bayley will meet Clarence Rothus at Port Angeles on July 4, and he looks for Bayley to come right back stronger than ever. As to the bout with Freddie Welsh, Manager Condon says that Bayley will meet Welsh, but he adds that he would like to meet Vaise again, in order to regain the title.

Vaise Has Class.

This boy Vaise, while comparatively unknown, has a decision over Ray Campbell to his credit, while he has beaten a lot of boys around Seattle in the past year or so. He is a rangy boy, with a good kick in either hand, and is a nice boxer in addition. He outgeneralized Bayley, and after the champion had mixed matters several times in the clinches, Vaise stayed on the outside and outboxed him at long range. Vaise was in perfect condition and kept his left glove poking continually in Bayley's face. His right cross is also an effective blow, and it was with this punch that he broke the artery in Bayley's nose that proved such a point winner for him. He carried the fight to Bayley at times and swapped punches with a freedom that demonstrates high-class material.

Champion Faded Fast.

So far as the fight went, Bayley led by a wide margin while he lasted. He had Vaise covering up and skipping about the ring in an endeavor to avoid punishment for five rounds, during which period he landed many telling blows on the Ronton lightweight. During the bout Bayley relied chiefly upon his lightning, and at this style he was easily Vaise's master. After the fifth round Bayley slowed up perceptibly, and did not have his usual speed. He still kept carrying the fight to Vaise, but was unable to avoid the left jab, and found it necessary to cover up at times. Vaise grew confident as the bout progressed and greatly outpointed Bayley in the eighth, ninth and tenth round. The prospects of a new champion worked the crowd into a frenzy in the final rounds, and there was a great uproar when Referee Hewitt raised Vaise's hand at the conclusion of the bout. Bayley's face wore a look of surprise, but he did not demur at the decision.

Gets Another Bout.

Chet McIntyre, acting for Vaise, promised Bayley another bout before the end of the month at the Brighthouse Station Arena, and the former champion also intimated his willingness to post a side bet on the contest. Frank Barreau secured the decision over Charlie Lucca, of Saskatoon in ten tame rounds, while Martin Murphy easily beat Bat Beece, of Seattle, in three rounds.

CHALK MOVED UP TO SENIOR BOAT

J. B. A. A. oarsmen will concentrate all their strength on winning the N. P. A. A. O. regatta, which will be held on the Indian River July 11 and 12, and with this in mind the officers of the club have decided not to send a crew to the Couer d'Alene regatta this week. It would have been necessary for the locals to shake up their present N. P. A. A. O. crews and this they refuse to do. Because of the enforced retirement of Blaney Scott from the senior fours, it has been necessary for the club to take Chalk from the junior fours and give him a place in the senior boat. J. Houston will complete the junior crew.

M'LAUGHLIN WINS OVER AUSTRALIAN

Wimbledon, Eng., July 2.—Maurice M. McLoughlin, the American champion, today beat Stanley N. Doust, the Australian Davis Cup captain, in the first set of the final round of the All-England tennis championship by 6-4. In the second set McLoughlin beat Doust by 6-4. In the third set McLoughlin beat Doust by 7-5 and won the final round.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Bayley's Defeat a Huge Surprise.

There was not one fight fan in a hundred who would have called Frenchie Vaise to win over Joe Bayley, yet the Ronton lad, trained in the minute, went out and won over the former champion, who appeared to take the bout more or less as a preliminary to his battle with Freddie Welsh. Bayley did not prepare for his contest with Vaise as he should have, and while condition is no excuse for any boxer, especially a champion, that is the only thing to which the downfall of Bayley can be attributed. Vaise and Bayley fought four rounds to a draw at Seattle last winter and Vaise showed himself to be a tough boy who could outpoint Bayley at long range. Yesterday Vaise was smothered for the first four rounds, but then Bayley weakened and could not put the same power behind his punches. The Bayley and Welsh match is now farther off than before, because Bayley must regain the title before Welsh will consider any demands as to weight.

Bad Pitching and the "Breaks."

Old Man McGinnity started his club winning yesterday and the Tigers under his prodding took a couple of games from the Bees. Toner was bad and Narveson was worse, and the morning contest was presented to the Bengals, and in the afternoon Kaufman was decidedly lucky to escape with a win. Kantielner heaved a nice article of ball, one of the really good games in fact, yet he was shut out, the club failing to connect with Kaufman's slants when a hit meant a run. It was a nice twirlers' duel, with the former Bee leading all through. Perhaps the chief factor in the victories of the Tigers was the "pep" that McGinnity has instilled into their play. Every man on the club is on his toes and literally fights everything that comes. They are running wild on the sacks and piling up the runs simply by bullying the game. On the other hand, the Bees are depending entirely upon their heavy hitting to drive the runs across, a plan that has not proved to be a world beater.

BLANKS THE BEES

DICK KAUFMAN

Former Victoria slant artist, who shut out his old team mates yesterday at the ball park. Kaufman is pitching in superb style for Tacoma this year.

AS SEEN FROM THE PRESS BOX

Kanty deserved to win his game, but the crew wasn't hitting.

Toner started badly and Narveson was worse, while McGinnity grew better as the game wore on.

Kaufman was glad to get away with yesterday's win, especially after the Bees chased him in the morning game.

Vancouver pulled Seattle down a bit by taking a brace of games. Bob Brown's crew should gain on the Tillikums this week.

Toner did not get away any too well, but he will be a pretty fair twirler once he strikes his stride with the Bees.

Charlie Schmutz is heaving grand ball for the Vancouver club and is a sure big leaguer for next season.

Spokane do not appear to be winning as many games under the new management as they did when Ostleick held the club.

There is a chance that the Bees will get Chief Carden in exchange for George Hardin, who is now at Spokane.

Just as long as Alberts continues to hammer the ball it will be impossible to keep him off the team.

New York has just about copped the Phillies in the National League and McGraw should land another pennant.

McGinnity has a bundle of live wires on his club. He even has his twirlers working sixty to the minute, these days.

Tacoma is taking long chances on the bases and they are getting away with it. Mike Lynch ought to try some of this stuff with his club.

Kippert is not hitting the ball nearly so hard these days and Bob Brown had better sell him soon or the big leaguers will not want the Beaver.

BEAVERS TAKE TWO.

Vancouver, July 2.—Vancouver won both games of yesterday's double-header with Seattle by timely hitting. Frisk furnished the fielding features in both games.

Morning game—
Score: R. H. E.
Vancouver ..... 4 5 1
Seattle ..... 2 7 1

Batteries—Ingersoll and Konnick; Melike and Cadman.

Afternoon game—
Score: R. H. E.
Vancouver ..... 3 3 0
Seattle ..... 1 2 4

Batteries—Schmutz and Konnick; Fullerton and Cadman.

JOE BAYLEY MAY BOX BEFORE V. A. C.

It is possible that Joe Bayley and Eddie Shannon will provide the headliner for the next programme that the Victoria Athletic Club management will offer the members on July 11. Arrangements are now being made to have Bayley appear before the local club, and the management of the V. A. C. expect to close with the former lightweight champion to-day. Bayley is after a return bout with Vaise, and Victoria fans will be given an opportunity to see how the local crack has improved in the last year or so. Other bouts on the card will include a bout between Uppercut Hicks and Seaman Oliver, while Fagan and Hendy will clash in a bantamweight contest. A bout between Double Kid and Charlie Southall may also be staged.

HENLEY OPENS.

Henley, Eng., July 2.—The opening of the royal regatta at Henley to-day was favored by ideal weather. Fifteen races, mostly of minor importance, were on the programme.

CANNUCK WINNER.

Carlisle, Eng., July 2.—Hans Holmer, the long-distance runner, formerly of Halifax, N. S., defeated George Dinning, of London, in a ten-mile running match by forty yards. Holmer's time was 52 minutes 52 2-5 seconds.

TIGERS TOOK PAIR FROM LOCAL CLUB

Kaufman and McGinnity Shove Bees Further Down the Line; Game This Evening

Dominion Day was set aside as a day of enjoyment for all Canucks, but if there were any who enjoyed yesterday's fare at the ball yard and dished up by the Bees, they were sitting on the Tacoma bench. With the stage all set for a holiday the Tigers came along and trampled all over our hired help, the Bengals grabbing both games of what was looked upon as a further boost for the Bees into the 500 division. Dick Kaufman and Iron Man McGinnity were the principals in the steal and the pair have lost legions of friends through their efforts to clamp the Bees in the second division.

Bat Fest in Morning.

Mike Lynch could not get his aggression working smoothly in the first frames and the opposing forces gathered the Bees into camp, the final score being 12 to 6, with the Tigers compiling something like eighteen hits for their little part in the mournful doings. Dick Kaufman essayed to stop the Bees, but he had little more than his glove, and gave way to McGinnity in the second inning. The veteran stopped the Bees effectively and his team mates pounded the deliveries of both Toner and Narveson to all corners of the lot. Toner was wild, but he would have remained on the slab had not he twisted his ankle going to second, he being unable to last the third inning even though the Bees were then in the lead. Narveson got in badly in the sixth inning after two were down, the visitors getting no less than five counts in this session, two lucky breaks favoring the Tigers. Delmas failed to get a pop fly that was obscured by the sun, while Mike Lynch hit McGinnity with the ball in trying to head him off at third, the ball bounding to the bleachers. The locals could not touch McGinnity.

Kaufman in Form.

In the afternoon Kantielner and Kaufman had a nice engagement, the lucky one getting the bulge on the port side and shutting out the Bees two to nothing. Kaufman was especially strong in the pinches, though he had little on Kantielner, who turned them back in grand style. The visitors gave the foxy one perfect support and the game was one of the most sensational played here in years. Victoria's wrecking show was conspicuous by its inability to connect at the proper moment, but Kaufman was twirling fine ball and one run was enough to win. Meek resumed at first base in the second contest, while Alberts replaced Lamb at third, the latter's leg still being bad.

Lynch will probably use Boatman tonight, while the Tigers may send Butch Belford onto the mound in an effort to make it three out of four. Lynch has Toner, also, but may decide to break Boatman into the regular swing. Charlie Brooks will be back with the club next week and when he gets into the lineup once more the team will look different. Brooks' hitting and fielding took the other first basemen in the league by a wide margin.

BOSS JOHNSON HELD THE CHAMPIONS SAFE

Vancouver, July 2.—On a very juicy field, before a crowd of nearly ten thousand spectators, Con Jones' Terrapins handed Westminster one of the worst defeats that they have sustained in recent years when they downed the world's champions by a score of 3 to 2 yesterday afternoon. The win places the Vancouver club right back in the running for the silverware, and from the showing that the green shirts have made in recent games, they are not yet through for the season.

Boss Johnson played a steady game in the nets for the Vancouver club, while Neway Lalonde scored five of the eight goals, Johnny Howard being unable to hold the elusive Frenchman. Harry Hyland made a good showing on his first appearance. Fred Cullen handled the match alone and made a pretty good job on it. The teams:

Vancouver ..... Goal ..... Westminster.
Johnson ..... Point ..... Marshall
Griffiths ..... Cover Point ..... Howard
Pickering ..... First Defence ..... T. Kenzie
Fleming ..... Second Defence ..... G. Romer

ALL CLAIMED CARCASS.

San Francisco, Cal., July 2.—Sixteen hunters gathered around one prone buck in the Spring Valley hills yesterday, each claiming to have fired the fatal shot. Guns were stacked and orators raged for several hours before Max Brothers of Half Moon Bay took away the carcass.

POLO FINAL WILL BE PLAYED AT WILLOWS

Victoria's chances for the polo championship of the Island nearly went slipping on Monday night, when Dr. Richards, captain of the Capital City quartet, sustained a bad fall while practising at the Willows. The pony also rolled on him, yet he escaped serious injury and will be able to take his place in the regular line-up of the local club which meets the Duncan polo team at the Willows on Saturday afternoon. This match will decide the winner of the first series for the Island title and the biggest crowd that ever attended a polo match in the capital is looked for.

Captain Clarke Better.

Capl. Clarke, the well-known head of the local club, who was injured several weeks ago, is round once more and he is assisting in the grooming of the local club for the big contest. He has arranged to have Sir Richard McBride throw in the ball at the start of the match, and the social side of the great number of Victoria's most prominent society leaders have taken boxes for the event, which will start at 2:30 sharp. The Fifth Regiment band, by the kind permission of Col. A. W. Currie and the officers of the regiment, will attend in full uniform, and a special car service will be provided for the game.

Lineup of Clubs.

Souvenir cards will be distributed of the event and there will be six chuckles, or periods, to the match. Each player will use three or four ponies during the match, and thousands of dollars' worth of horse flesh will be used as mounts. The Duncan team will arrive Friday and the clubs will line up as follows:—
Victoria—Alex. McKenzie, A. B. Irving, Dr. Richards, A. H. Gunn and A. D. Metcalfe, spare.
Duncan—A. Kennington, G. Gore-Langthorpe, Wynneant, Knight and Boothby.

LEANDER CREW ARE FAVORITES

Henley-on-Thames, July 2.—Leander paced for two minutes by Eton last evening; did the half course to Fawley in 3 minutes 14 seconds. This is the fastest time practice recorded. The Argonauts, in a two-minute row, were a few feet short of the distance covered by the Leander crew in the same time. Both the Sportsman and Sporting Life forecast Leander as a winner over the Argonauts to-morrow, and pick them for the finals of the grand challenge. Opinion generally favors a close finish. The regatta opened this morning in delightful weather. The Argonaut crew are all well.

CENTURY SCORED BY ALBION BATTER

E. P. Ward, of the Albions, scored 124 in the match yesterday between the Albion and Burrard clubs at the Beacon Hill pitch. The Albion batters were in rare form, with Ward showing the way. Idiots and lambs also batted well, while W. H. Tyman was the bright star for the losing eleven, scoring 60 runs and taking five Albion wickets.

Oak Bay "B's" defeated the Albion second eleven yesterday in a two-innings match. C. Barker, of the Bays, provided for the game.

Souvenir cards will be distributed of the event and there will be six chuckles, or periods, to the match. Each player will use three or four ponies during the match, and thousands of dollars' worth of horse flesh will be used as mounts. The Duncan team will arrive Friday and the clubs will line up as follows:—

compiled a splendid 73, the bowling of Watkins and Howland being all that could be desired.

HOW TO GET RID OF DYSPEPSIA

Don't Rely on Medicines! Don't Go on Freak Diet! Common Sense and an Antacid Usually All That Are Needed.

PHYSICIAN GIVES GOOD ADVICE.

"If you have dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, belching distress after eating, heartburn or any other stomach trouble due to hyperacidity (the usual cause of stomach troubles), you should take no medicine to act upon the stomach itself. That is positively not the way to cure the trouble. Again, you should not half starve yourself by going without the nutritious food that you need to rebuild waste tissues. Some foods are not good for people even when in perfect health - very rich, sweet, highly seasoned dishes. Avoid these, but eat fairly substantial meals of plain foods. Eat slowly. Even if you drink nothing but water you should not drink with meals. Drink before and after eating. Do not take peppermint or other critical digestants. If you follow the foregoing simple instructions it is probable that you will not need any medicine at all except, if you want to call it medicine, a little antacid after meals. The best antacid is ordinary Bismarck Magnesia, which can be purchased at any drug store. This is not to act upon the stomach but on the contents of the stomach. The antacid, as you can learn by consulting your dictionary or encyclopedia, is merely to neutralize or counteract the excess acid so the stomach can digest the food normally. Take a teaspoonful of Bismarck Magnesia in a little cold or hot water after each meal. You should get immediate relief, even if your case is severe. Careful, moderate eating and the use of Bismarck Magnesia should put your stomach in normal condition in a short time, if you have not allowed dyspepsia to advance to the extreme stage of developing stomach ulcers or cancer." - Advertisement.

WILL WATCH WEIGHTS.

City Council Will Appoint Official to See That Full Measure is Given.

At the city council on Monday evening the council adopted the proposal to have a civic official weigher to enforce the fur weight clause on all stores, and referred the question of the appointment to the finance committee, which will make a recommendation as to the man to fill the position.

The criminal code places the obligation on an inspector of weights and scales, who is resident here, but whose duties are confined to inspection of weights and scales. There his jurisdiction ends.

The mayor read the report on the subject from Mayor Cotterill, of Seattle, and the alderman then endorsed the proposal.

Alderman Dilworth jokingly said that American merchants were naturally more crooked than their Canadian confreres, hence the extent of short weight shown in the Seattle statistics.

THE EVENING CHIT-CHAT
By RUTH CAMERON

Modesty as a quality has been so much praised that it has cast an edge of its glamor over many similar qualities which are not particularly desirable - diffidence, bashfulness and self-distrust, for example.

Once upon a time there was a girl who was naturally self-distrustful, and, who, because she disliked vanity and admired modesty so much, cultivated her self-distrust. This girl was not pretty. She was painfully conscious of the fact; her sensitiveness made her prickly and suspicious, and needless to say, her prickliness and suspicion did not bring lovers flocking to her feet, for men, especially, do not like that sort of thing.

Now in common with all girls on the borderland of plainness and prettiness, she had one great advantage over a beauty - there were glorious moments when a becoming gown, a flush of excitement, or a successful coiffure made her momentarily pretty, and thus gave her a thrill of happiness which no habitually pretty girl can experience. On one such occasion she chanced to be thrown into the company of a man to whom she was greatly drawn, and who would probably have been drawn to her if it had not been for the repellent force of her exaggerated self-distrust. Now, on this occasion her consciousness of her momentary beauty gave her confidence and happiness, and her confidence and happiness completed the circle by adding to her beauty. The man obviously admired her, which, of course, made the color in her cheeks flame pinker and the light in her eyes shine brighter. And that again completed the circle by adding to his admiration. So, altogether, they had a very happy day.

On the way home the young man, being a rather unusual person, gave way to a burst of frankness. "Why aren't you always like this?" he asked her. She turned startled eyes upon him. "What do you mean?" she countered. "Why don't I always look so well?"

"No," he said, "I didn't mean that. But why aren't you always so happy and sure of yourself?"

What the girl answered doesn't matter particularly. What does matter is that the thought sank in; she acquired a distrust of her self-distrust and is now trying to overcome it, with the most delightful results. And now I suppose you want to know if a wedding is likely to take place. Well, then, I should not be at all surprised.

It is by request that I tell this story; the request of the girl herself. She thinks there may be other women who are repelling love and admiration by exaggerated self-distrust.

The woman who is trying to win or to hold a man cannot afford to be uncertain of herself; such uncertainty begets uncertainty.

Believe in yourself, and you will make others believe in you. I think that is an equally good suggestion both for the man of business and for the woman who is engaged in "woman's only business."

CARE
By GEORGE MATHEY ADAMS

One of the greatest enemies to Society as a whole and to the individual in particular is indifference. Indifference unopposed eats its way silently yet surely, and twines its death-gripping tendrils into almost every avenue of human endeavor.

Care-Care!

It is indifference that is filling the divorce dockets. It is indifference that is constantly slapping the face of Good Government. It is indifference that blocks the way of advancement of every great and good project or purpose of people, of towns, of nations.

It is indifference on the part of workers in the store, the office, and in public stations that keeps them down and rusts their very souls - while others pass on and up.

Care-Care!

For if you don't Care - if you don't pull off your coat and roll up your sleeves and with cheerfulness and willingness in your system enter upon your daily tasks, you have no one but yourself to blame if hind-end conditions dwarf the door, "that you could make a joke, but couldn't take one."

FINE FOR THE BABY

Baby Jumper, Swing and Tray All Combined in One Article.

An Oregon man has patented a combined baby jumper and swing that will probably afford infants much enjoyment and give mothers more rest. A basket-shaped device is suspended from the ceiling of porch or room by means of elastic cords. This device, known as the saddle, has openings in the front through which the baby's legs are thrust and comes up around his waist. When sitting in it he is completely safeguarded against falling out and yet he can swing his legs with perfect freedom. This apparatus can be used as a swing or will bounce up and down owing to the elastic cords. A tray with slots in the ends can be affixed to the swing or removed in an instant by the simple expedient of inserting a cord in each slot. A child may swing or bounce about in this contrivance in perfect safety.

TRUSTEES CANNOT ACT AS DIRECTORS

Important Declaration Made by the Court of Appeal as Obiter Dicta in Case

An important declaration by the Court of Appeal on the ineffectuality of trustees to act as directors of joint stock companies was made on Monday afternoon, not as a judgment but as obiter dicta of their lordships. Their view is against the practice in England, but in line with what the jurists of to-day and for some years past have maintained.

The practice is based upon a decision of the late Sir George Jessel, when master of the rolls, that a trustee could properly act as a director, though judges since then have questioned the soundness and propriety of that decision. At the same time they have followed it because they do not care to disturb what has been the practice for so long. The Court of Appeal of British Columbia, on the other hand, does not think that in this country an admitted error in the legal practice of the old land should be perpetuated. The statement was incident to the giving of judgment in the case of Lucas vs. the corporation of North Vancouver, in which the appeal of the defendant corporation was allowed by three judges out of the four. The corporation, as holder of shares in the Burrard Bridge & Tunnel Company, passed a by-law to authorize the transfer of a number of the shares held by it, just as other municipal bodies in the vicinity hold an interest in the project, to the names of individual members of the council in order that they may be qualified to act as directors of the company. This action was opposed by E. A. Lucas, a ratepayer of that city, and he secured an injunction from Mr. Justice Murphy restraining the council from carrying out its intention.

No Bad Faith. In giving the judgment of the court, reviewed the action of the corporation in deciding to transfer the municipality's shares to four of its members for the purpose of enabling them to qualify as directors. Prefacing his judgment he said that the plaintiff could have got all the relief he desired in this case by a motion to quash the by-law, and his action in bringing an injunction in order to bring in other people whom he could not reach otherwise was wrong. There was no suggestion of bad faith in what the council did, and his lordship could not see anything ultra vires in its appointing trustees to act for the municipality. The legislature having authorized the council to embark upon a commercial enterprise, such as the furthering of the construction of a bridge or tunnel, he did not see why the corporation should not enjoy all the advantages of an individual shareholder.

Mr. Justice Martin concurred. Mr. Justice Gallie agreed that the city of North Vancouver had power to transfer the shares held by it, as to the right of trustees acting as directors, while it did not enter into the question of this judgment, he thought that the court must take cognizance of it considering the seriousness of the question and the arguments that had been addressed to the court on that point. Looking at the opinions held by British judges on the matter and the Canadian law he was decidedly of opinion that trustees could not act as directors.

In the latter part of the judgment of my brother Gallie I agree, "I think that the construction we should put on our act, which is different from the English act, ought to be that the qualification required in those who are to act as directors is more than the mere holding of shares as a bare trustee. The object of the statute was that he should have some substantial interest in the company, and to hold that a bare trustee, having no such interest, falls within the meaning of the act is a construction that is not in accordance with what I believe is the intention of the legislature."

Will Not Follow. The English courts have felt themselves bound to follow the decision of Sir George Jessel. They have expressed, and expressed repeatedly, in effect that it was wrong, but that it has been acted upon by the profession and the bench for so long that it would not be well to disturb it. It has been held, however, by Lord Coleridge and other judges that where the words of the law are different to those of the English act the court might not feel itself bound to follow this decision in Canada, no such line of decisions in Canada, and I think it would be a mistake to regard it as an error.

On the point at issue in the judgment the lordship disagreed with the majority of the court. He held that it had not authority to do what it attempted to do in this case. Power had been given to municipalities to subscribe for stock, and provision was made for their representation on the boards of corporations in which stock was taken, but he did not think the court could infer any intention to confer upon a statutory body power to transfer its shares to third persons, to represent the corporation on the board of directors.

TRUANT WINS HONOR AT COWICHAN BAY

Howard Miller's Motor Boat
Takes Long Distance Race
at Regatta

Cowichan Bay regatta, always well supported from outside on Dominion Day, was a marked success yesterday. Although there was not a special steamer from Vancouver, and H. M. S. Shearwater was unable to attend on account of gun practices, officials stated that the crowd was as large as ever. In the absence of the sloops of war, which last year attended the meeting, the race for whalers and cutters had to be abandoned.

The largest excursion was that landed by the Princess Royal from this city, while the Cowichan side from the wharf and on the adjacent roads. The events were well filled, particularly those for motor boats. The principal officials of the meeting were F. H. Matland-Dougall, president, with G. Chee and a judge, J. E. Stilwell and L. O. Garnett, starters, H. W. May, hon. secretary, treasurer, assisted by A. Kennington, T. A. Wood, Jr., E. A. Price, C. J. Waddy, W. R. Robertson, T. Kingscote, T. Pitt, S. Schwabe and J. Hutchinson.

Mrs. Hayward, wife of W. H. Hayward, M. P. F., honorary president, distributed the prizes at the conclusion of the events. Music was supplied by Mr. Harvey's band from Nanaimo. Motor Boat Race. The motor boat race from Carboro Bay was won by Howard Miller's Wildfire, which made the trip in 4 hours and 30 minutes; L. B. Kent's Trio being second, with W. F. Burton's Chickadee third. The handicapping proved that the officials had a good idea of the capacity of the various boats. Twelve boats reported to the judges during the day.

Chief among the events was the long distance sailing race under Bismarck rules, which was won by Mr. Adam's Truant, Mr. Hutchinson's Halcyon being second. The boats arrived from their long trip down the Spanish Arm in the late afternoon, the breeze which had blown in the morning falling about noon, and leaving a calm in the afternoon.

The dingy sailing race, and the sailing dingy race were run off together, six boats in the contest, the course being over to Genoa Bay. The race terminated in a dead heat for A. Kennington and J. E. Stilwell.

The local motor boat race was run twice, the first result being voided on account of a misunderstanding. In the second Charles Rowell's Gladys, was first, with Dr. Nelson's Bluebird II, second. The others finished in a bunch.

T. A. Wood and F. Kingscote, Quanchan, retained the double sculls, having won the challenge cup for the third year in succession.

Mrs. Hayward and Miss Wood won the ladies' sculls, with Mrs. Hutchinson's crew second.

Indian Events. In the single paddle canoe there were nine entries, and a fine race resulted in Felix Jack carrying off the honors, with Sammie's crew second.

Was Canoe Race—There were eleven entries in each canoe, and Cowichan won by half a length, with Valdes I and second, and Kuper Island third. The finish for third place was close.

Indian Double Paddle Canoe—Felix Jack crew, 1; Sammie's crew, 2. The win of the Cowichan crews was popular, there being eleven starters.

Log Rolling Contest—Dan Felix. An amusing interlude.

Schlitz Brown Bottle Is Making History

Two years ago, Schlitz adopted the Brown Bottle.

Scientists, world famous, had rendered opinions that beer exposed to light cannot remain pure.

One year ago, Schlitz corroborated its claims by reprinting such parts of these opinions as were pertinent.

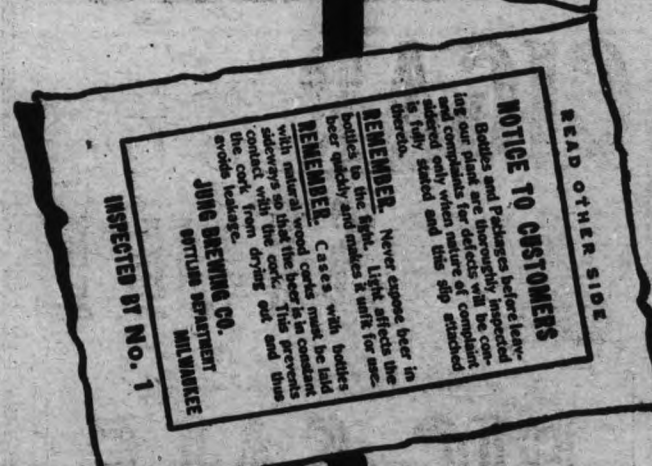

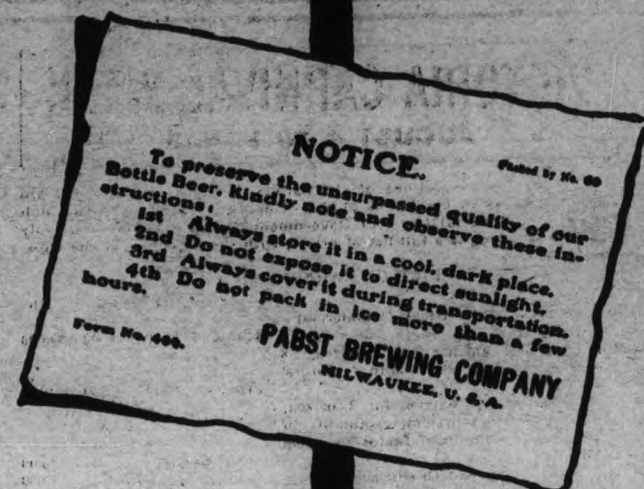

Today, the last link in this long chain of incontrovertible evidence is complete.

We reproduce herewith in miniature the printed matter on covers or caution cards taken from cases of beer sold by brewers using the light bottle.

Read them.

They are self-explanatory. They are eloquent.

These competitors admit the weakness of their own product when exposed to light, by warning the public to "Keep the cover on."

TRAGEDY OF WRECK

REVIVED BY EVENT

Death of Australian Pioneer Who Had Terrible Experience on Cr.

The death of Mr. George William Rooke, a pioneer resident of East Goulburn, at the age of 78 years, has revived a romantic story of the sea, in which he played a prominent part, say Australian exchanges to hand on the Marana. When a young man the late Mr. Rooke was a sailor. About 50 years ago he iron ship Strathmore, of which he was one of the crew, struck the rocks off the Crozet Islands, and broke in two, sinking in 15 minutes in a violent sea. On a hastily constructed raft were 48 men, and one woman. The captain and all the officers went down with the ship.

Young Rooke was in charge of the raft party. After tossing about for seven hours, a landing was with great difficulty effected on one of the islands. The weather was bitterly cold and the party had no provisions nor clothing beyond what they were wearing. The island was absolutely barren, and water had to be obtained by melting snow and ice. The only weapon possessed by the party was a knife made of hoop iron. This was held by Rooke. The only sustenance was afforded by birds. Each man had to kill a certain number daily. The sufferings of the party were so acute that five perished, while one went mad, and never recovered his reason. A rough shelter of stones was built, the wing of an immense penguin serving as a door.

Vessels occasionally went by, but could not be ignored. Birds became shy, and the food supply was in danger of giving out. The party were at last in such desperate straits that lots were drawn to decide who should be killed to be eaten. Rooke vowed he would jump into the sea before he would be cut up.

A further supply of birds fortunately enabled the castaways to avoid resorting to the desperate expedient. Rooke made for himself a suit of birdskins, and was promptly named Robinson Crusoe. After being six months and 22 days on the island, the whaling vessel Young Phoenix hove in sight. The survivors were rescued, and Rooke's unique suit was exchanged for a suit of ordinary clothing. The sole survivor of the party is now a resident of Melbourne named Pincy. It was this latter who suggested that the Crozets should be searched for any survivor. from the Waratah. After working in the railway department, Mr. Rooke took up the carrying trade, and retired about 20 years ago.

Teacher—"How many zones has the earth, Johnny?" Johnny—"Five." Teacher—"Correct. Name them." Johnny—"Temperate, Intemperate, canal, horrid, and ozone."

THE HUMAN PROCESSION

William Lequeux, the English novelist, who has a large following in this country as well as in Europe, will begin his fiftieth year to-day, having been born in London on the 2nd of July, 1864. His latest novel, deals with his experiences in the Balkan war, and the scenes are laid in Serbia and Albania. Mr. Lequeux travelled extensively in those countries, as well as Macedonia, Turkey, Montenegro and Bulgaria, before the war, as well as acting as correspondent during the recent struggle of the Balkan states with Turkey, and is thoroughly familiar with the subject of which he writes. He is a commander of the orders of St. Sava of Serbia and Danilo of Montenegro. For some time he lived in the little republic of San Marino, a mere speck on the map of Europe, and was made a consul of the republic and a member of the San Marino Order.

Mr. Lequeux was educated in England and Italy, and afterward studied art in Paris. He forsook the Latin quarter and his artistic ambitions to make a pedestrian tour through France and Germany. His accounts of his experiences on these trips won him a place as correspondent, and later as editor on the London Globe. While still actively engaged in journalism he published his first novel, "Guilty Bonds." This was in 1890, and the book was sufficiently successful to encourage him to write another, "Strange Tales of a Nihilist." Twenty years ago he abandoned newspaper work to devote his entire attention to novel writing, and since then has published an average of a book a year.

Mr. Lequeux has an intimate knowledge of the secret service of all the European powers, and many of his novels are based on this insight into affairs that are a closed book to ordinary mortals. The novelist is an inveterate traveller, and has spent years in wandering through Algeria, Morocco, the Sahara, Asia and the Balkan states.

"Spare the rod and spoil the child" is an old proverb that meets with the approval of Prof. Frank Morton McMurry, one of the foremost American authorities on pedagogics. The professor of elementary education at Teachers' College, Columbia University, is a Hoosier by birth, having been born near Crawfordsville, Ind., 51 years ago to-day. Prof. McMurry advocates the restoration of corporal punishment in schools, but recommends certain restrictions, such as that the child be examined by a physician before the "licking" is applied, and that the written consent of the parents to the punishment be secured, when possible. He declares that there are many disobedient and disorderly children who have little regard for the rights of others, and little fear beyond that of bodily hurt, who can be taught respect for authority only by a proper application of the rod. Of course, whipping hurts the whipper more than the whipped, but Prof. McMurry believes that school principals should not only be permitted, but commanded, to administer

KEEPS FILE LEVEL

Mirror Enables Workman to Produce a Flat Surface.

Just as a perfectly straight line is hardest of all to draw without a ruler, so a perfectly flat surface is hardest of all to produce with a file. No matter how level a man may think his file is, the result will invariably show that the ends tilted at different times. But a Wisconsin man has devised a very simple expedient which bridges the difficulty. By placing a mirror just beyond the object that is being filed the operator can sight along the tool and know all the time whether it is running true or is getting out of plumb. At first the image in the mirror may be a trifle confusing, but once the workman gets accustomed to guiding a file in that way he can control its direction with perfect ease, and the problem of producing a flat surface will be solved for him.

ernor of Martinique, and later went with him to Paris. She gained so great an influence over her lover that he agreed to her proposal that his son, Alexander, marry one of her nieces. The choice fell on the second daughter of M. de la Fagere, but she died before the proposal reached Martinique, and Josephine was sent as a substitute.

Smith had just been operated upon for appendicitis. During his period of convalescence he became quite chummy with the two other patients who shared the ward with him. "How are you feeling, boys?" said Smith one morning to them. "Oh, we are all right," they both answered together,

"considering that we had to undergo two operations." "Why, how was that?" questioned Smith in an agitated voice. "Because the doctor assigned to this ward is an idiot. In collecting his instruments after the operation he missed a needle and a scalpel. The former he found in me, and the latter in my friend on the right. You see now the reason for the two operations." Just then the surgeon put his head in the door and asked—"Has anyone seen my silk hat?" Smith faints.

Tommy—"Pa, what is the fourth dimension?" Father—"The one that fits every fashion; your mother has it."

TO-DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

The Upper Canada Medical Board was organized in 1819 to exercise supervision over the numerous persons (some of them the very best) who took upon themselves to practice the art of healing in these early years. The board held a quarterly meeting at York on this day, July 2nd, 1821, and the most important business appears to have been the receipt of a circular, addressed by the Lieutenant-Governor to certain officers of the militia drawing pensions on account of wounds. In this it was stated that "no provision has been made by the provincial legislature for the payment of the pensions granted; but His Majesty has been pleased to sanction this allowance to you (the officer addressed) His Majesty will not hesitate to direct a warrant to issue for it on the funds of the crown." But the payment was made conditional on the pensioner's submitting at intervals to inspection by the Medical Board, and presenting a certificate that the disability on account of which the pension had been granted, still continued, and prevented him from "earning his livelihood by hard labor." In April, 1823, the continuance of the pension to Captain James Secord (presumably the husband of the famous Laura) was approved.

Rt. Hon. Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., the last survivor of the first Macdonald ministry and one of the fathers of confederation, was born at Amherst, N. S., ninety-two years ago to-day. July 2, 1821, the son of Rev. Dr. Charles Tupper. He was educated at Acadia and Edinburgh universities, and obtained the diploma of the Royal College of Surgeons at Edinburgh in 1843. He returned to his native town to practice his profession, and there, in 1846, he married Frances, a daughter of Sir John H. Morse. His long and distinguished public career began in 1857, when he was a member of the executive council, and provincial secretary of Nova Scotia. He was prime minister of Nova Scotia from 1864 until confederation, and played an important role in the launching of the Dominion, representing Nova Scotia in the various conferences. Later he led the successful fight against the Howe secession movement. In the elections following confederation he was the only non-repealer elected to the Commons from Nova Scotia, an evidence of his great personal popularity among his own people. He was returned fourteen consecutive times by his native county, Cumberland. Between 1870 and 1884 he was minister of inland revenue, of customs, of public works, and of railways and canals. In 1884 he went to London as high commissioner for Canada. In 1887 he was minister of finance, and in the following year was created a baronet for his services as one of the negotiators of the fisheries treaty. He returned to London as high commissioner, but retired from that office in 1896 to become premier of the Dominion. In the general elections of that year his administration was defeated on the Manitoba school question. He continued as leader of the opposition until 1900.

FIRST THINGS

The first railroad in China, from Shanghai to Woonung, a distance of eleven miles, was publicly opened thirty-seven years ago. The puffing locomotives aroused consternation and fear in the hearts of the Chinese, and the line had to be constantly guarded to prevent them from tearing up the track. So great was the public clamor that the government bought the road, intending to destroy it, but this decision was reversed, and operation was resumed in 1877. In the following year, however, the tracks were torn up and all the portable property of the pioneer Chinese railway was removed to Formosa. In a few years other short lines were constructed, and opposition to the innovation gradually died out. In 1903 China had 2,000 miles of railway in operation, and 1,800 miles have been completed since then, while over a thousand miles more are projected or building. A great national system of railways, reaching every part of China, to be built and operated by the government, is one of the proposals of the republican regime, and the working out of the plan has been entrusted to Dr. Sun Yat Sen.

Ministers Hear Pros and Cons Over Saanich Paving With Bitulithic Material

An influential deputation waited upon the ministers this morning in connection with the proposed municipal contract for the laying of bitulithic paving on the roads of Saanich municipality. The government's approval is necessary before a contract can be awarded to the Warren Construction Company, which was the lowest tenderer. The government is to contribute $100,000 to the scheme, and Sir Richard McBride, Hon. Dr. Young and Hon. W. J. Bowser, together with the President of the Council, Mr. A. E. McPhillis, heard the deputation, which was composed of the supporters and opponents of this class of paving, and of the Victoria Automobile Association, which had passed a resolution endorsing the scheme passed by the majority of the council at the last meeting.

Among the speakers were representatives of the Vancouver Portland Cement Company and the Associated Cement Companies of Canada, who urged the desirability of using cement in the paving process. From ex-Councillor H. Sewell, president of the Central Ratepayers' Association of Saanich, and from Mr. Cotterill and Councillor McCreary were heard opposition to the proposed class of paving. Mr. H. E. Pooley, M. P. E., in support of the resolution which they had already adopted endorsing the action of the reeve and council of Saanich in letting the contracts on the specifications to the firms to which they were given. R. H. Pooley, M. P. E., introduced the deputation. They were promised an answer by Monday next.

NEW GUNS FOR FIFTH

Lt.-Col. Currie Announces That Two 18-Pounders Will Come Here.

Two of the new 18-pounder breech-loading field guns which the Militia Department has ordered from the Old Country will be sent out to the Fifth Regiment of Victoria, according to the statement made by Colonel Currie this morning. Colonel Williams, the Adjutant-General of Canada, who accompanied the Minister here last week, promised Col. Currie that at least two of these new guns would be given to the Fifth regiment, as he said it was a great pity that so fine a regiment should be drilling with obsolete artillery.

When the two big 9.2 inch guns at Red Hill are levelled and the necessary work is done to make them ready for use it is possible that one of the Fifth's companies will be attached to them, so creditable has been their working with the other inferior artillery.

May Be Riding School.

The wish of the Department has always been that at least one company of the Fifth be trained to use field guns in what is known as movable armament work. The guns are the same as those used by Field Artillery regiments, but the use they are put to is different. Saddles and harness have been sent along by the Department for this work and it is expected that a riding instructor will be appointed to give the men of No. 3 company-clashes in this necessary branch of field artillery work. This company has so far been working with a battery of four 12-pounder breech loading guns, an out-of-date design. The new 18-pounders are the very latest thing in breech loading field guns.

MADE FINE SCORES.

Fifth Regiment Men Compile Excellent Figures in Competition Shooting.

Before the Fifth regiment broke camp last evening it completed its shooting and loading competitions, the scores of which are forwarded to Ottawa to be compared with the scores of all the other artillery regiments in the Dominion. The results of the competition will be made public about September and it will be exceedingly brilliant work by any regiment that succeeds in bettering the records made by the Fifth.

Col. Currie stated this morning that not a little of the success of the regiment was due to the deep interest taken in it by Major Mills, R. C. G. A., who has throughout been the instructor.

Loading Competition Held.

Number 1 company held a loading competition yesterday afternoon with the 12-pounder guns at the navy yard. Black Rock battery, under command of Lieut. M. Crockett, won the competition and the trophy presented by Gore & McGregor, while Belmont battery, under Lieut. C. W. Birch, was second, and Dunze Head battery, under Lieut. A. E. Sargison, was third. The speed attained was excellent, as was shown in the all-Canada competition score later in the day when 40 hits, a perfect score, was run up in the quick firing contest from the same 12-pounders. The first 20 shots were discharged in 25 seconds and the second round in 53. This speed was the real feature of the work.

Great Work at Moving Target.

Number 2 company's scores from the big 6-inch guns at Macaulay fort were equally good. Shooting at a moving target at ranges varying from 4500 to 5000 yards, two rounds of shells each were discharged under a time limit of eight minutes, a round. The first round was successful every time, and the second round was 7 minutes and 44 seconds. The second round had one miss, but the shooting was done in 6 minutes and 21 seconds.

Number 3 company shot 3 rounds of shrapnel at a range of 3800 yards from the 12-pound breech loading guns early in the morning and some 35 shots were effective, a very high score for shrapnel.

SEVERAL GOOD NUMBERS.

Bill at Empress Theatre This Week is Well Balanced and Has Variety.

The Palace quartette at the Empress theatre was one of the high features of the bill yesterday and Monday. The Georgia trio is another musical act which is drawing well, and the black-faced comedians amuse much with their wit and humor. The finale act, "The Passenger Wreck," is a good serio-comic novelty with a good cast. The Edison talking pictures are exceptionally good this week. The usual urpuds are forthcoming at the three shows during the day. On the whole the bill is well balanced and offers an attractive variety of entertainment, the musical numbers especially being bright and pleasing.

ROYAL PERSONAGES TO MEET.

Berlin, July 2.—The King and Queen of Italy, en route Germany to-day on their way to Kiel, where they are to meet the German Emperor and Empress to-morrow. Imperial Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg and Foreign Minister von Jagow departed from Berlin this morning for Kiel to participate in the royal and imperial meeting.

"I got my start in life through picking up a pin on the street. I had been refused employment by a banker, and on my way out I saw a pin, and I thought, 'What a chestnut! I've heard of that so often. The banker was impressed by your carefulness and called you back and made you head of the firm.' 'No, I saw the pin and picked it up, and sold it for five hundred dollars. It was a diamond pin.'"

TWO WOMEN SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.

Beatrice, Neb.—"Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then. I am in good health and I have two little girls."—Mrs. R. B. Child, Beatrice, Neb.

The Other Case.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but my husband thought I had better write to you and I did so, stating my symptoms. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

TO THE MAN WHO RUNS THE STORE

Are the goods on your shelves advertised by the manufacturer who induced you to stock up with them? If you were called upon to advertise these goods, and to let people know that you sold them, what medium would you employ?

Without hesitation, we can answer this question for you: THE LOCAL NEWS-PAPERS, of course. You know, Mr. Dealer, that the one way to create an actual demand that means sales over your counter is through the medium of the daily press. When manufacturers, therefore, want to advertise their goods, tell them that the way to help you move these goods from your shelves is to use the newspapers of this city.

And be sure to co-operate with the manufacturer who spends money to bring customers to your store.

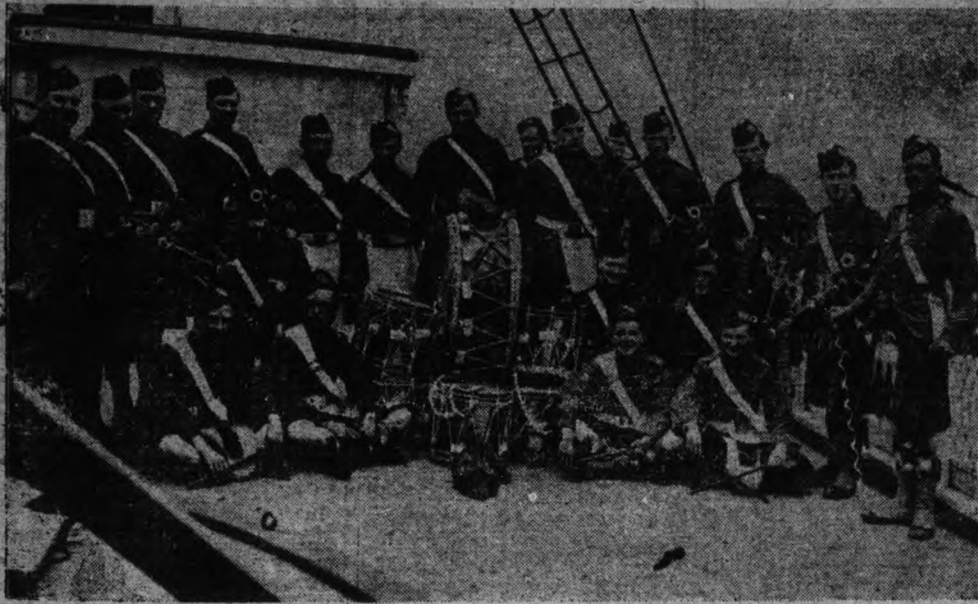

Dealers and manufacturers who are interested in local newspaper advertising for nationally distributed products are requested to write to the BUREAU OF ADVERTISING, AMERICAN NEWS-PAPER PUBLISHERS' ASSOCIATION, World Building, New York City.

Dutton-Ewing.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Saturday at the home of Mrs. N. Thomas Keyworth, pastor of the Esquimalt Methodist church, performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by one bridesmaid, Miss Thelma Smith, while Mr. McAdam acted as best man. During the services Miss Elliot, of the Metropolitan church choir, sang "The Voice that

NEW LORD'S DAY CASE

Lord's Day Alliance Starts Another Test—Magistrate Dismisses the Case.

Certain technical objections having been raised to the cases brought under the Lord's Day Act a couple of months ago the appeal in those cases has been dropped and this morning in police court a new case was launched by the police. Dudley Lutz, who keeps the Elk Cigar stand at the corner of Douglas and Pandora streets, was accused and the evidence showed that he had sold two cigars to Detective Turner on Sunday, June 22. In cross-examination the detective admitted that Mr. Lutz was doing what was part of his ordinary calling. The magistrate dismissed the case for the same reason as assigned in the original cases in May and an appeal will be taken by the Lord's Day Alliance.

A petition signed by 7,000 people was taken to the attorney-general some time ago asking that no more prosecutions be sanctioned, but this case was authorized since the time of the petition.

INCREASE IS 1,351,900

Figures for Six Months on Street Cars Show Great Growth.

The half-yearly statistics of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company for the street car service in Victoria show an increase of 1,351,900 passengers carried this year over the first six months of 1912. Over the city lines yesterday 46,349 passengers were carried, an increase of 11,127 over last Dominion Day, which was 35,222. These figures make a remarkable record in the business of the city lines and vividly show the increased population of the city during the last year.

The figures follow:

ESQUIMALT SETS RECORD

Of Taxes.—92 Per Cent. Has Been Already Paid, Making Municipality Unique in Province.

Esquimalt, as a municipality, in collecting over 92 per cent. of the total amount of taxes due in its first year of existence has set a record that has never been reached by any other district in the province of British Columbia, which shows the sound financial standing of the residents to the west of the city. The net amount of taxes due was $58,273.74; $54,128.00 was collected by June 30, leaving but $4,245.74 yet to come in, or making the stated percentage collected.

The residents of Esquimalt are proud over their showing, and have good reason to be so. There are 850 taxpayers in the municipality and out of that number 725 have paid, making the percentage of tax-payers about equal to the money paid in. The amount of the assessment roll is $5,463,427. Exemptions of school and government property amount to $274,650, leaving a net value of $5,188,777. The general rate is 10 mills and school tax is 1 1/4 mills. Remarkable as this showing may seem the municipality has not yet seen its first full year of life. It was formed on September 16, 1912, and all the work of organizing and getting started by passing the many by-laws that were necessary for the proper working of the district took a considerable amount of time. The assessment roll was made anew without any municipal roll to be guided by, this requiring a great amount of labor. Then again the value of the land has risen and doubled the assessments set by the government last year. The improvements were exempt from taxation but are now assessed.

After the board of equalization adjourned the first week in March the books were turned over to the collector to make his roll and issue the tax notices. This was an exceedingly difficult task as so many of the actual owners were absentees and much of the property had changed hands, under agreements during the last year, and these could not be got from the registrar's office. This fact required the tax notices to be re-mailed as many as five times before the right persons were reached.

Bore Assumed Name.—That Theodore A. Braker, of San Francisco, was the correct name and address of the man who committed suicide at the Prince George hotel the other day is now evident. T. A. Arons was evidently assumed to conceal his identity. Braker, it seems, absconded from Klamath Falls, Oregon, where he was a hotel clerk, and his suicide is believed to have been caused by the refusal of a local girl to marry him. The inquest was held this afternoon.

Struck by Tram.—Mary Blair sustained a broken arm last night when she was run down by a street car at 11 o'clock near 1812 Douglas street, where she lives. She was taken to the hospital in the police ambulance.

Made Haul of $200.—A haul worth $200 was made by a thief, as yet undetected, at the Prince of Wales saloon, Thursday morning. Holt, of Vancouver, fourth vice-president and executive agent of the Canadian Northern Railway, was in the city yesterday on a holiday trip, and would not consent to talk business with a Times reporter. He merely stated that his company was very pleased with the success it had met in raising money for the continuation of its work and that the company was being well treated in the matter of the Songhees terminal plans.

Tax By-law Laid Over.—On account of the late hour at which the city council adjourned on Monday evening, a formal by-law fixing the tax rate at 20 mills on the dollar gross was laid over for further consideration. It is understood that when it is again submitted to the council for ratification, Alderman Cuthbert will move that the figure be reconsidered, in order that the figure for the general rate may be reduced.

Peikay in City.—Arthur Peikay, the man who put out Luther McCarty, in the first round, the latter dying a few minutes later, and Tommy Burns, former heavyweight champion of the world, passed through the city this afternoon on their way to Seattle from Calgary, where he trial of Peikay for manslaughter has just been completed. It is probable that the ban on the fight game has caused the two to seek other fields.

C. Johnson; press, H. Sheridan-Bickers, and Randolph Stuart.

A Frenchman, engineer, of London, England, also desires to learn particulars of the openings in this profession and a surgeon, resident in Tait Chowat, Chi, China, wants to transfer from that place to British Columbia.

"I Never See You Dusting" said Mrs. White

"WELL, Mrs. White, I'll confess that I don't have to do much dusting since we got our McClary's Sunshine Furnace."

"You don't say so, Mrs. Wright. What difference does that make? Isn't one furnace the same as another?"

"Well, I'll tell you, Mrs. White—McClary's Sunshine is certainly different from our last furnace. It's a clean furnace. It has what McClary's call a sure-acting dust flue."

"A dust flue, eh?"

"Yes, and when George, my husband, 'rocks' down the ashes—he doesn't have to break his back shaking the Sunshine, you know—the dust all goes up the sure-acting dust flue. It doesn't come up into the house."

"Wish our furnace was a Sunshine, Mrs. Wright. And you should just see Mr. White after shaking our furnace. Mad! Well, I should say so. And he sure looks his name. He is WHITE. His suits are ruined, he declares, as soon as he gets them, and he swears that the thing is not a furnace at all, but a patent coal-consumer gotten out to benefit the coal man."

"But why not get your husband to put in a Sunshine furnace, Mrs. White? You can persuade him to do most anything for you. And it will cut down your coal bills. We burn a third less coal with the Sunshine."

THERE'S a McClary agent in your locality who will gladly tell you all about the coal-saving, labor-saving and health-producing features of McClary's Sunshine Furnace. It will play you to read the latest Sunshine booklet. Write our nearest office for a copy.

ASKS FOR DETAILS

Alderman Fullerton Calls for Return on Cost of Sooke Waterworks.

To the information with regard to the cost of Sooke waterworks further knowledge is to be added, as Alderman Fullerton has called for a comprehensive return on the various departments of the work, of which at various times sectional returns have been made by various officials.

Although the alderman proposes that the comptroller report, the return would affect the water commissioner's office upon the work actually carried out, and that of the solicitor upon expenditures. Mr. Rust stated this morning that the department was preparing a report upon the quantity of material wanted and an approximate estimate of cost for early presentation to the city council. As the city has to finance the payment of over $300,000 in the near future to the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway for Sooke water-shed, the return now asked for comes at an appropriate time.

The city solicitor has advanced the expropriations for right of way fairly well, and a record in his office shows at a glance how far the acquisition of the property has gone. There are, however, some parts of the line where owners are dilatory in meeting the offers of the city.

The information sought in detail is as follows:—

1. The amount paid for land bought or expropriated.
2. The engineer's estimate of cost of material, labor and land still to be required in connection with the scheme.
3. The amount paid for legal expenses in connection with all expropriations or suits.
4. The amount of unpaid bills, if any, outstanding.
5. The amount paid by the city for material bought by the contractors or city.
6. The amount paid the Westholme Lumber Company.
7. The amount paid out by the city since taking over the work.

"CAMILLE" PLEASES. Company is Cleverly Cast, and Artists Score Success in Respective Roles.

It is greatly to the credit of the Williams players that they are capable of presenting so heavy a play as "Camille," which they are this week playing to well-filled houses. The entire company is very proficient, and the most difficult of all the roles, that of Camille, has fallen to Miss Page, a finished artist, who plays the part with charming vivacity and emotional ability. The Armand of Mr. Mitchell is natural and unaffected, and Miss Rice makes a convincing Madame Prudence. From the residence of A. Wilson, 1315 Fort Street, where a spark from a chimney had ignited the roof. The loss was about $75.

FEW FIRES IN JUNE

Loss is Trifling—Two Calls for Department on Holiday.

Last month proved a light one for fires in this city. The loss would have been trifling but for the fire at Mr. Elliott's garage, which destroyed a valuable car.

There was a loss on buildings of $270.97, and on contents of $6188.20. The insurance on buildings endangered was $10,200, and on contents $17,300. The department responded to three box alarms, and 21 telephone calls in the month, used 694 gallons of chemicals, laid 7950 feet of hose, and reared 92 feet of ladders.

Yesterday morning the department was called to the store of Quong Hai Tai, on Fisguard street, where a lamp had upset, causing a loss of $50. In the evening an alarm was turned in from the residence of A. Wilson, 1315 Fort Street, where a spark from a chimney had ignited the roof. The loss was about $75.

CONTINUE AGREEMENT WITH FISCAL AGENTS

City Council Decides to Retain Dominion Securities Company

By a majority vote of one the city council on Monday evening adopted a report from the finance committee suggesting the retention of the fiscal agents, the Dominion Securities Ltd., and the pursuance of the policy of borrowing on treasury bills, renewing those issued as they fall due in October.

Those who voted for the motion were Aldermen Porter, McCandless and McNell, members of the committee, with the mayor and Alderman Weston, and against, Aldermen Cuthbert, Dilworth, Fullerton and Humber.

Chief opposition came from Alderman Cuthbert, who criticized the mayor first for not presenting a policy himself, and also the method on which the Dominion Securities Company had placed the recent issue on the London market. He reiterated his objection to the council tying itself to a single firm of financial agents, and complained that it had not realized the expectations indulged when the appointment was made in October, 1911. He complained that the mayor had permitted the company to suggest a line of policy, the main item of which was that the company ought to be retained as agents. He claimed, from a series of figures submitted that the bonds would realize not a dollar for the new work except that earmarked for sewers and waterworks, and that despite the fact that the city would in a few weeks have disposed of six million dollars' worth of issues of various kinds. The Bank of British North America had told the council it would not make extensions to initiate new work because the city employed fiscal agents, to whom it must look for approval. It appeared to him to be an arrangement in which the agents got the profits of sales, and therefore the attitude adopted by the bankers was not surprising.

Not Properly Advertised.

The alderman recounted that the Canadian News had termed the Victoria issue a "miserable failure" and he asked if Montreal had acted in this way in its recent sales. He stated that in advertising the issue in London, a copy of which advertisement from the Daily Telegraph he read, not enough had been made of the prosperity and advance of the city last year, it being merely termed an old Hudson's Bay fort. No attention had been given to investors in the north of England, where money was to be obtained, and applications could only be made through the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Alderman Fullerton referred to the short shift given the Albion Trust Company's offer a month or two ago, and thought money would then have been available for new work.

The comptroller, by request of the mayor, made a statement to the city council. Mr. Rayner said the former practice of the city had been to sell the debentures as issued in the open market. Of late the city had to deal with registered stock and treasury bills. The former was sold in England, and must be underwritten. The short term issues were more easily disposed of at Toronto and eastern cities. The city had been getting the underwriting done at one-quarter of one per cent, the lowest rate secured by any city in Canada. The short term issues had been sold as high as those of any city.

Watched Credit.

To show that the Dominion Securities Company had had to watch the city's credit, he said that when the debentures were paid over to Major Dupont to purchase Stadacona park, he had put them on the market at bargain prices. To prevent depression of the city's credit, the company had taken them up itself. With regard to the criticisms about the Bank of Commerce being engaged as the bankers for the issue, he pointed out that the Bank of British North America was not an issuing bank, the only two such banks in London for Canada being the Bank of Montreal and the Canadian Bank of Commerce. The issue had to be conducted in that way. The former bank had carried the issue of the city of Montreal because it was fiscal agent for that undertaking. He thought it would be a fatal mistake to make a change in the agency at the present time while present undertakings had to be financed. The city owed the Bank of British North America two million dollars, and until one million was paid off the company was unwilling to advance any more money. The motion to adopt the report was then carried by a majority vote at a late hour.

AN ADJUSTMENT SALE.

An Event of Interest to the People of Victoria.

This event carries elsewhere an announcement of the Big Adjustment Sale of Allen & Company's Clothing Stock.

Mr. Allen has decided to make some changes and improvements for his business in order to carry out which he is obliged to sell several thousand dollars' worth of stock as quickly as possible. Some lines of merchandise are to be closed out entirely. He informs us that he is determined to accomplish this in the quickest possible time, which accounts for the extremely low prices quoted for this sale. Mr. Allen says they have put the knife into the prices for this sale to an extent hitherto unknown in this portion of the country.

In order to get the stock in readiness for the coming onslaught of bargain-hunters the store will be closed all day Wednesday, July 2, to enable a large force of clerks to ticket the goods and to make the sale prices and arrange the stock so that the crowds can be served to the best advantage.

To make it a matter of special interest to the people to be on hand at the opening hour Thursday morning, July 3, at 9 a. m., cash prizes will be given out. It is safe to predict that an immense crowd will be in attendance.

The Times has been assured by Mr. Allen that the public will be offered greater values at this sale than ever before and we are pleased to pass the good news on to our readers.

THOUSANDS ENJOYED VARIED AMUSEMENTS

Victorians Entered Into Spirit of Holiday With Zest; Many Picnics Held

Victorians and visitors were far from being disappointed with the day that broke for Canada's national holiday yesterday and thousands travelled aither and thither to enjoy the many attractions that were arranged for their entertainment. Probably the majority of pleasure seekers sought their day's fun out of town, at Shawigan, Cowichan Bay, Cowichan Lake, Nanaimo and in fact all island points, while several thousands remained in the city to see the baseball games and the Scotch sports at the Willows. The latter were a complete success, while the Bees managed to drop two games to McGinnity's Bengals from Tacoma.

A great crowd lined the city streets about 1.30 o'clock in the afternoon, to witness the arrival of the troops from the West. The tired but smiling soldiers of war made a pleasing spectacle, especially the Highlanders who came with their two bands—the pipes and brass bands—keeping the spirits of their fellow-men enlivened all the way. The troops were drawn up in rank lines on Yates street, between Blanchard street and Douglas street, before the dismissal, and paying off of the men. The troops taking part were the Seaforth, the Sixth Duke of Connaught's Own Rifles, the 14th Fusiliers, the Fifth Regiment, the 88th Fusiliers, and the University School Cadets.

Picnicers, generally speaking, made for the beaches, where the greatest enjoyment offered. All along the shore line from Alber Road to Esquimalt and from there past the camp of the Fifth Regiment and again from Fowl Bay northward to Sidney and around into Saanich Inlet were found the white lions spread. It was a great day for boating and swimming and these outdoor pleasures were enjoyed to the utmost.

The Daughters of Scotland spent their day at Cordova Bay, making their jaunt by trolley, where an excellent programme of sports was successfully held. The Sunday school children of the First Congregational church held an enjoyable day at the Esquimalt property at Beaver Lake. At Esquimalt the Metropolitan and Centennial Sunday schools held what was probably the largest picnic of the day. The sports were good, the programme being long and offering much competition. Hundreds competed and the officials had great difficulty in picking the winners in several instances, the field being so large at the finish line.

At Langford, Lake the ladies of St. Paul's Church Guild spent a pleasant day. Victoria Lodge No. 84, I. O. G. T., and the St. James' Methodist Sunday school picnics were held at Macaulay Plains and the members of the Moose Lodge had a joyous day at Goldstream. Many other picnics were held, too numerous to mention, but safe to say not lacking in the enjoyment of the bigger ones.

Big Regatta.
Cowichan Bay was the rendezvous of a few thousand visitors. They came in motors and by train and by boat. The programme there was conducted with the same promptness and verve as of old. The event is proving more popular year by year, unquestionably.

Thousands of Victorians journeyed to Vancouver, where probably the one disappointment of the day took place. Joe Bayley was forced to pass his title of lightweight champion of Canada to a practically unknown fighter, "Frenchy" Vaise, an American.

Fully three thousand people assembled at the Gorge last night, where fireworks and all the various amusements of the park filled away. Messrs. Hitt Brothers conducted a very favorable pyrotechnical programme. A popular musical programme was given, and pleasure was found in dancing at the pavilion, at the "Figure Eight" and the numerous "Three-Drop-You-Get-a-Half-Dollar" booths. All in all it was a grand day from every standpoint and with good weather no fairer Dominion Day has ever been held in Victoria and environs.

COMMITTEE TO DECIDE

Arrangement May Be Made With Worswick Company Regarding Underground Work.

To a committee of officials a proposal has been sent by the city council to arrange with the Worswick Paving Company for carrying on the underground work at Brooks, Stannard and Arnold streets, on an actual cost plus ten per cent basis, as the company may remove its plant to Saanich, where a contract has been secured. The city is now holding about $25,000 of the company's money as hold-back and guarantee on paying work already done by the company. The company proposes that the city should give it this amount, according to the terms of the contract, in five years to guarantee the maintenance of streets already completed. The company would complete this work and then proceed with paving, accepting from the city promissory notes for the cost of the work, such notes to bear the customary bank rate of interest and the company to wait until the city is in a position to meet the payments.

Grape-Nuts

Made from prime wheat and malted barley, it is ready to eat direct from the package; digests generally in about one hour, and contains the true brain and muscle building materials placed in the field grains by Nature for man's use.
